Critical Discourse Analysis Theory And Disciplinarity:

A New Agenda in (critical) Discourse Analysis Ruth Wodak, Paul Anthony Chilton, 2005-01-01 Critical Discourse Analysis CDA has established itself over the past two decades as an area of academic activity in which scholars and students from many different disciplines are involved It is a field that draws on social theory and aspects of linguistics in order to understand and challenge the discourses of our day It is time for A New Agenda in the field The present book is essential for anyone working broadly in the field of discourse analysis in the social sciences The book includes often critical re assessments of CDA s assumptions and methods while proposing new route maps for innovation Practical analyses of major issues in discourse analysis are part of this agenda setting volume Critical Discourse Analysis G. Weiss, R.

Wodak, 2007-10-18 Can discourse analysis techniques adequately deal with complex social phenomena What does interdisciplinarity mean for theory building and the practise of empirical research This original volume debates critical theory and discourse analysis focussing on the extent to which CDA can draw on a range of disciplines in the social sciences

Expressing Critical Thinking through Disciplinary Texts Ian Bruce, 2020-06-25 Exploring how critical thinking is expressed in writing this book investigates the specific linguistic elements involved in this process Ian Bruce takes a genre based approach to compare the textual expression of critical thinking in samples of academic professional and journalistic writing using five studies to examine the similarities and differences in the elements deployed across different genres Looking at phenomena such as the relations between propositions and words which express the writer s personal attitude content organizing patterns and the role of metaphor this book highlights the most important contributory factors in the expression of critical thinking Providing an in depth exploration of how it is articulated through different types of specialist writing this book provides a lens to both examine texts and to identify and practice this skill Expanding Disciplinary

Space: On the Potential of Critical Marketing Douglas Brownlie, Paul Hower, Mark Tadajewski, 2014-10-14 Expanding disciplinary Space On the Potential of Critical Marketing provides an introduction to the major perspectives in critical marketing studies It contains theoretical reflections on critical marketing whilst building on the key concepts and ideas which are vital to the subject through detailed empirical studies An international collection of marketing experts discuss the eclectic character and potential of the critical turn within marketing theory and practice Chapters explore topics such as marketing academia consumer research political marketing marketing ethics postcolonial epistemic ideology in marketing marketing theory and marketing for community development The text is essential reading for all those interested in contemporary developments in marketing theory and practice irrespective of the discipline from which they originate This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Marketing Management On Discourse Analysis in

Classrooms David Bloome, 2008-09-28 This book in the NCRL Collection provides an introductory discussion of discourse analysis of language and literacy events in classrooms The authors introduce approaches to discourse analysis in a way that

redefines traditional topics and provokes the imagination of researchers For those who have limited knowledge of discourse analysis this book will help generate new questions about literacy events in classrooms For those familiar with this research perspective it will map diverse new approaches Handbook of Feminist Research Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber,2007 The topic feminist research has too often been neglected in standard research methods books The Handbook of Feminist Research represents the establishment of a new tradition or paradigm in viewing how the research process is implemented Feminist researchers bring unique epistemological and methodological perspectives to the research process Feminists approach to methodology allows for new types of questions about women s lives and those of other ed marginalized groups to be addressed within their respective fields of research This Handbook stresses the interconnections between epistemology methodology and methods They are not de linked from each other but work together in dynamic ways to produce new knowledge and this openness itself is also characteristic of how feminist researchers approach their work Feminists engage synergistically with all three aspects of the research process epistemology methodology and method Through a synergistic connection between these elements of research epistemology methodology and method we find that feminist research often shapes new research endeavors that are greater than the sum of their parts In other words while traditional research employs these components of research the synergistic engagement of these components in feminist research questions the status quo aiming to raise our consciousness about how we do research Looking at the selections provided in this Handbook we are able to look at feminist research its implementation of synergistic use of epistemology methodology and method and the resulting qualities of feminist research in practice Critical Discourse Analysis Norman Fairclough,2013-09-13 Bringing together papers written by Norman Fairclough over a 25 year period Critical Discourse Analysis represents a comprehensive and important contribution to the development of this popular field The book is divided into seven sections covering the following themes language in relation to ideology and power discourse in processes of social and cultural change dialectics of discourse dialectical relations between discourse and other moments of social life methodology of critical discourse analysis research analysis of political discourse discourse in globalisation and transition critical language awareness in education The new edition has been extensively revised and enlarged to include a total of twenty two papers It will be of value to researchers in the subject and should prove essential reading for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students in Linguistics and other areas of social science Gender and Language Research Methodologies Kate Harrington,2008-07-10 An up to date overview by actual practitioners of key research methodologies currently used in language and gender study Drawing multimodality's bigger picture: Metalanguages and corpora for multimodal analyses Janina Wildfeuer,Claudia Lehmann,2024-07-30 Multimodality has most recently been described no longer as a research field or discipline on its own but rather as a stage of development within a field Bateman 2022a 49 The realization that 1 many different fields and disciplines now enter their own multimodal phase with new interest in multimodal phenomena and that 2 these disciplines all commit to the development of multimodality research with their own theoretical principles and methodological tools brings with it not only an immense breadth of potential analytical objects but also many new meta methodological issues We need to find ways of combining insights from the variously imported theoretical and methodological backgrounds brought along by previous non multimodal stages of any contributing disciplines Bateman 2022a 49 At the same time the search for a meta methodology for multimodal analyses is pushed further by the recent trend towards more empirical approaches to multimodal phenomena and the development and use of larger multimodal corpora that just as well require theoretical and methodological refinements We need to develop ways of strengthening claims with robustly applicable methods which nevertheless remain firmly anchored theoretically Bateman 2022b 64 For a productive handling of these issues disciplinary triangulation and finding a common language or metalanguage Maton newest results from data collection methods and multimodal corpus analyses that expand the current quantitative work by e g applying existing theories and methods to larger datasets or exploring the newest communication technologies We are particularly interested in seeing how works addressing these aspects contribute to finding ways of productive triangulation and integration for and within a meta methodology for multimodality research This Research Topic aims to bring together scholars from a variety of disciplines interested in multimodality research to review explore and advance the contributions that John Bateman as one of the key figures in multimodality research has made to both theory and method building as well as to the driving forward of multimodal empirical and corpus analyses We welcome contributions that for example critically address the theoretical and methodological advancements that John Bateman has made with regard to the notions of semiotic mode discourse semantics genre textuality etc apply one of the many approaches that John Bateman has developed for the empirical analysis of multimodal artefacts e g the GeM model for page based documents his work on multimodal film and audio visual analysis and the discourse semantics and or annotation approach to visual narratives to larger corpora or currently newly developing communicative situations expand on one of the abovementioned aspects with new ideas and insights from disciplines that have not yet been included in multimodality research

The Discourse of Politics in Action Ruth Wodak, 2009-04-28 Offers first hand evidence of the everyday lives of politicians what politicians actually do on the backstage in political organizations This book deals with questions of performance of politicians in EU organizations and with TV soaps representing the everyday lives of politicians in answering relevant questions about global politics Methods for Critical Discourse Analysis Ruth Wodak, Michael Meyer, 2009-04-01 An up to date introduction to critical discourse analysis CDA appropriate for both novice and experienced researchers Publisher description Folia Linguistica, 2001

Language, 2003 Proceedings of the annual meeting of the Society in v 1 11 1925 34 After 1934 they appear in Its Bulletin Management Writing Out of Bounds Alexander Styhre, 2005 When thinking is moving out of the grids of the binary structure writing practices may become a source of reflection and debate Management Writing Out Of Bounds is an attempt to bring the issue of writing into discussion in the field of management studies and organization theory

Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts, 2008 Disciplinary Discourses Ken Hyland, 2000 Applied Linguistics and Language Study General Editor Christopher N Candlin Chair Professor of Applied Linguistics Centre for English Language Education Communication Research Department of English City University of Hong Kong Hong Kong Since it was first established in the 1970 s the Applied Linguistics and Language Study series has become a major force in the study of practical problems in human communication and language education Drawing extensively on empirical research and theoretical work in linguistics sociology psychology and education the series explores key issues in language acquisition and language use Disciplinary Discourses Social Interactions in Academic Writing presents a series of innovative studies focusing on eight disciplines and a variety of key genres to examine the relationships between the cultures of academic communities and their discursive practices It proposes a framework to account for the interactions between writers and their readers in published academic writing draws clear teaching suggestions and offers detailed methodological principles and suggestions to support further research Drawing on discourse analysis corpus linguistics and the voices of professional insiders Ken Hyland explores how academics use language to organise their professional lives carry out intellectual tasks and reach agreement on what will count as knowledge Through its focus on the features of key genres this book shows what close textual analyses can reveal about the social practices and institutional ideologies of different academic communities and at the same time provides a clear basis for further research The theoretical and descriptive accounts have strong practical implications for the understanding of academic writing and disciplinary communities It will therefore be of great interest to teachers and students of academic writing English for Specific Purposes and discourse analysis more generally Ken Hyland is an Associate Professor in the Department of English City University of Hong Kong Perspectives on 9/11 Wahid Sāmi, 2004 Conflicting Interests Roberta Joan Herter, 1998 Methods of Critical Discourse Analysis Professor Ruth Wodak, Michael Meyer, 2001-10-25 This book is designed as an introduction to Critical Discourse Analysis CDA and gives an overview of the various theories and methods associated with this sociolinguistic approach It also introduces the reader to the leading figures in CDA and the methods to which they are most closely related The text aims to provide a comprehensive description of the individual methods an understanding of the theories to which methods refer and a comparative treatment of each of these methods so that students may be able to determine which is the most appropriate to select for their particular research question Given the balance between theory and application plus the intended audience no previous knowledge of CDA is assumed Methods of Critical Discourse Analysis should be useful reading for both students and researchers in the fields of linguistics sociology social psychology and the social sciences in general A Multi-disciplinary Systems-based Analysis of the Timber/fish/wildlife Environmental Policy Negotiation René-Marc Mangin, 1989
