Critical Perspectives On Aging:

Critical Perspectives on Aging Meredith Minkler,Carroll Estes,2020-11-25 This unique volume brings together 20 critical essays on aging within the context of the broad social political and economic factors that help shape and determine the realities of growing old Rather than viewing aging in isolation it explores the social creation of old age dependency and the profound influence of race gender and social class on what it means to grow old It looks too at such topics as the biomedicalization of aging the role of business and the media in changing societal images of the old the fact and fiction behind senior power the multibillion dollar nursing home industry and the role of advanced capitalist nations in creating economic dependency among elders in the Third World

Social Policy and Aging Carroll L. Estes,2001-03-30 This groundbreaking book provides comprehensive treatment of the political economy of aging by a scholar widely credited as the founder and key thinker of this field in the US and internationally The body of work presented in this volume in developing this critical perspective aims to contribute to the understanding of old age and aging in the context of problems and issues of the larger social order in the world s most advanced capitalist nation the U S A Since Estes first writing on the political economy of aging in 1979 there has been growing recognition and incorporation of her critical perspective as one of the major paradigms in the field of aging

Critical Perspectives on Ageing Societies Miriam Bernard,Thomas Scharf,2007 Bringing together leading proponents of the critical gerontology perspective from Britain and North America this book reviews and updates our understanding of how the field has developed over the last 25 years and explores current and future concerns surrounding population ageing in the 21st century

Critical Perspectives on Aging Meredith Minkler,Carroll L. Estes,1991 Brings together 20 critical essays on aging within the context of the broad social political and economic factors that help shape and determine the realities of growing old This work explores the social creation of old age dependency and the profound influence of race gender and social class on what it means to grow old

Social Theory, Social Policy And Ageing: A Critical Introduction Biggs, Simon,Estes, Caroll,Phillipson, Chris,2003-11-01 This work covers theoretical developments and issues influencing the study of adult ageing It explores contemporary trends in social policy drawing on the experience of ageing in the USA Europe and an increasingly global environment Feminist perspectives on ageing are also covered

The Political Economy of Ageing and Later Life Alan Walker,2014 This timely Research Review highlights the most important and influential articles and papers on ageing and later life of the past half century The authors examine policy creation and implementation practice and critical gerontology including both feminist and international perspectives The work provides a critical perspective on the field and will be of immense assistance to anyone looking to understand the consequences of our ageing population on society

Critical Perspectives on Ageing Societies Miriam Bernard,Thomas Scharf,2007 This important new book brings together some of the best known international scholars working within a critical gerontology perspective Together they review and update our understanding of how the field has developed over the last twenty five years and through the lens of passionate scholarship provide a challenging assessment of the complex practical and ethical issues facing older people and those who conduct research on ageing in the 21st century The contributions extend the critical gerontological approach conceptually methodologically and practically They offer close and scholarly analysis of policies affecting the lives of older people and provide insights into why research is done in particular ways Special attention is paid to feminist contributions and new approaches to working in partnership with older people age discrimination and ageism the impact of neo liberal policies and the passage of various human rights instruments the re medicalisation of later life the participation of older people in research and justice between generations The editors and contributors offer suggestions for promoting change and an exciting set of visions and perspectives for the renewal and development of critical gerontology in the years ahead Critical Perspectives on Ageing Societies will be a valuable resource for all students academics and practitioners interested in ageing and the life course

The Political Economy of Ageing and Later Life Alan Walker, Liam Foster, 2014 This timely new collection presents the most important and influential articles and papers on ageing and later life of the past half century The editors examine policy creation and implementation practice and critical gerontology including both feminist and international perspectives Including an original introduction and key works not available in scholarly libraries this is a critical assembly of work and will be of immense assistance to anyone looking to understand the consequences of our ageing population on society

Critical Humanities and Ageing Marlene Goldman, Kate de Medeiros, Thomas Cole, 2022-11-01 Providing a critical humanities approach to ageing this book addresses new directions in age studies the meaning and workings of ageism in the twenty first century the vexed relationship between age and disability studies the meanings and experiences of queer aging the fascinating yet often elided work of age activists and finally the challenges posed by AI and more generally transhumanism in the context of caring for an ageing population Divided into four parts Part I What Does It Mean to Grow Old Part II Aging Old Age and Disability Part III Aging Old Age and Activism Part IV Old Age and Humanistic Approaches to Care the volume provides an innovative two part structure that facilitates rather than merely encourages interdisciplinary collaboration across the humanities and social sciences Each essay is thus followed by two short critical responses from disciplinary viewpoints that diverge from that of the essay s author Drawing on work from across the humanities philosophy fine arts religion and literature this book will be a useful supplemental text for courses on age studies sociology and gerontology at both undergraduate and graduate levels

Ageing, Globalization and Inequality Jan Baars, Dale Dannefer, Chris Phillipson, Alan Walker, 2016-11-03 This book is a major reassessment of work in the field of critical gerontology providing a comprehensive survey of issues by a team of contributors drawn from Europe and North America The book focuses on the variety of ways in which age and ageing are socially constructed and the extent to which growing old is being transformed through processes associated with globalisation The collection offers a range of alternative views and visions about the nature of social ageing making a major contribution to theory building within the discipline of gerontology The different sections of the book give an overview of the key issues and concerns underlying the development of critical gerontology These include first the impact of globalisation and of multinational organizations and agencies on the lives of older people second the factors contributing to the social construction of later life and third issues associated with diversity and inequality in old age arising through the effects of cumulative advantage and disadvantage over the life course These different themes are analysed using a variety of theoretical perspectives drawn from sociology social policy political science and social anthropology Aging Globalization and Inequality brings together key contributors to critical perspectives on aging and is unique in the range of themes and concerns covered in a single volume The study moves forward an important area of debate in studies of aging and thus provides the basis for a new type of critical gerontology relevant to the twenty first century Critical Gerontology Meredith Minkler, Carroll L. Estes, 1999 These 20 contributions to a critical gerontology are placed in the framework of a broad political economy that sees the problem of aging in structural rather than individual terms The authors examine the social creation of the dependent status of the elderly the management of that dependency through public policies and health and social services and the intersections between race class gender and aging The work is designed to complement and update Critical Perspectives on Aging by the same editors Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Understanding Aging and Diversity Patricia Kolb, 2014-07-11 The demographic phenomena of increased life expectancy increasing global population of older adults and a larger number of older people as a proportion of the total population in nations throughout the world will affect our lives and the life of each person we know The changes will result in challenges and benefits for societies and people of all ages These events need to be understood explained and their consequences addressed sociological theories about aging are an essential part of this process In Understanding Aging and Diversity Theories and Concepts Patricia Kolb presents important sociological theories and concepts for understanding experiences of older people and their families in a rapidly changing world She explores concepts from phenomenology critical theory feminist theory life course theory and gerotranscendence theory to explain important issues in the lives of older people This book investigates similarities and differences in aging experiences focusing in particular on the effects of inequality Kolb examines the relationship of ethnicity race gender sexual orientation and social class to international aging experiences This book explores the relationships between older people and social systems in different ways and informs thinking about policy development and other strategies for enhancing the wellbeing of older adults It will be useful for students and scholars of sociology gerontology social work anthropology economics demography and global studies

Women in Late Life Martha Holstein, 2015-03-19 Contemporary old age is fraught with contradiction and complexity women portrayed either as incompetent and cuddly grandmothers or as young women trapped in old bodies images that rarely reflect how women actually see themselves Women in Late Life explores the thorny issues related to gender and aging including prevailing but problematic cultural expectations body image ageism the experience of chronic illness threats to Social Security and the very possibility of a secure retirement while challenging a long term care system that disadvantages women Author Martha Holstein writes from a critical feminist perspective drawing on her many years of experience in gerontology as well as interviews and personal experience as a woman now in her seventies The book highlights how women s experience of late life is shaped by the effects of lifelong gender norms by contemporary culture from gender stereotypes to ageism and by the political context The book blends critique with proposals aimed at resisting damaging inequities resulting from being simultaneously old and a woman She focuses on changes needed on multiple levels societal cultural political and individual This interdisciplinary look at key questions around gender and aging is nuanced and beautifully written The Need for Theory Simon Biggs,Jon Hendricks,Ariela Lowenstein,2020-11-25 The Need for Theory speaks to the burgeoning need for critical thinking in social gerontology The editors have brought together some of the foremost contributors to theoretical advances in the field This volume incorporates state of the art theorizing with a focus on selected topical areas facing gerontologists around the world Using their keen insights into substantive issues the contributors examine personal and structural changes affecting individuals over the life course Extolling the need for theory is not enough the contributors focus their insights on a panoply of substantive issues linking the personal with the political and with the structural parameters that shape the process of aging no matter where it occurs Dementia Studies Anthea Innes,2009-03-05 What is dementia How should we organize dementia care This comprehensive book critically examines the main approaches to understanding dementia bio medical social psychological and socio gerontological and the main principles and ideologies of care The book provides clarity on the gap between the utopian aspirations of care and the reality of care opens up a series of questions about knowledge and treatment of dementia argues for a transition from positions that place emphasis upon the individual or particular care services to the social cultural and economic context Lively informative and challenging the book will be of interest to students of nursing sociology of health illness social work and social gerontology Anthea Innes teaches at the Dementia Services Development Centre University of Stirling Critical Approaches to Ageing and Later Life Anne Jamieson,Sarah Harper,Christina R. Victor,1997 With contributions from some of the leading figures in the field this volume discusses the latest theoretical developments concerning the study and research of ageing Voices and Visions of Aging Robert Kastenbaum, PhD,Thomas R. Cole, PhD,W. Andrew Achenbaum, PhD,Patricia L. Jakobi, PhD,1992-11-15 A critical gerontology requires more than a simple elaboration of existing humanistic scholarship on aging This exceptional new work introduces a basis for genuine dialogue across humanistic scientific and professional disciplines Among the topics addressed are industrial employment retirement life styles of older women and biological research From philosophical reflections on the third age to critical perspectives on institutional adaptations to an aging society this book presents a wide range of provocative thought Fighting poverty, inequality and injustice Walker, Alan,Sinfield, Adrian,2011-06-15 This important book makes a vital academic and political statement in the cause of social justice It begins with an appreciation of the seminal contributions of Peter Townsend 1928 2009 and applies them to contemporary policy debates It brings together many of the leading contributors to current debates in this field and provides a compelling manifesto for change for students and researchers in the social sciences policy makers and practitioners and everybody with an interest in creating a more equal and socially just society

The Encyclopedia of Aging: L-Z Richard Schulz, 2006 Comprehensive multidisciplinary encyclopedia dealing with aging processes and older adults Intended for the educated inquirer who needs a brief authoritative introduction to key topics and issues in aging Signed entries contain cross references Contains lengthy bibliography General index

Intersections of Aging Lisa A. Hollis-Sawyer, 2000 Explores the diversity of experiences in aging by integrating ethnic gender economic status sexual orientation and historical variations This book includes discussions of historical social and cultural constructions of old age the importance of incorporating race ethnicity gender and social class into models of aging and more
