CLIMBING A LADDER

I'm climbing a ladder.
I can't see the top.
Don't know where I'm heading,
But still, I don't stop.
The ladder is sturdy.
I climb past our roof.
I have a strange feeling
This might be a goof.
The chimney's below me.
I dare not look down.
I know it's a distance
To fall to the ground.
I reach the first cloud,
And it's thicker than cream.
I say to myself,
"This is likely a dream."
Though I'm scared of heights,
My knees do not quake.
I love this so much
That I don't want to wake.

Crossroads Of Dream Prose Poems:

Crossroads of Dream Anson Gonzalez, 2004 Anson Gonzalez's prose poems criss cross the crossroads between dream and conscious awareness. They set the reader on a surreal adventure into the mental journeys of a persona for whom the inner and outer worlds are a seamless universe. There is no order to the presentation of the prose poems; they take their own twists and turns. The poems are lyrical, tell stories, and explore a lifetime of reflective concern with life's conundrums: love, ageing, finding an inner purpose, being Trinidadian, and sometimes feeling out of step with the temper of the times. These poems are the work of one who hears a different drummer, and their tone is sometimes sardonic and even cynical, though always with a wry, self-deprecating humour. Above all, the twinkle in the tone suggests a healthy appreciation for humour, of fickle fate or capricious gods. While there is ultimately no didactic purpose, the mind leads and the poet follows these globules of consciousness in action, both illuminate and delight. Anson Gonzalez is a Trinidadian poet, critic, publisher, and encourager of countless writing careers. International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02. The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today. Containing biographies of more than 4,000 contemporary poets worldwide, this essential reference work provides truly international coverage. In addition to the well-known poets, talented up-and-coming writers are also profiled. Contents: Each entry provides full career history and publication details. An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners, organizations, magazines, and publishers. A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes. The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate, Oxford University professors of poetry, poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature, winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry, and of the King's, Queen's Gold Medal, and other poetry prizes.

Baudelaire's Prose Poems Sonya Stephens, 1999. The aim of this book is to offer a new reading of Baudelaire's Petits Poèmes en prose, which demonstrates the significance of ironic otherness for the theory and functioning of the work and for the genre of the prose poem itself. The book considers Baudelaire's choice of this genre and the way in which he seeks to define it, both paratextually and textually. It examines the ways in which the prose poem depends on dualities and doubléments as forms of lyrical and narrative difference, which in their turn reveal ideological otherness and declare the oppositionality of the prose poem. Finally, the book demonstrates a relationship between these forms of otherness and Baudelaire's theory of the popular comic arts, and in doing so proposes that the prose poems should be read as literary caricature. Short Story

Crossroads Nader George Dahdal,2010-03-24 A lot went into writing this book I feel that different authors write about many things but for me its always been about my personal life and feelings How I felt at one time to what I lost in life that was important to me I feel that when I write about me and my personal life and how I feel its like Im letting the readers into my personal life that many dont really know about Im not perfect nor far from it We all make mistakes in life and we learn from them In a way Im glad that the people came into my life and gave me new experiences and certain of those people hurt me in a way otherwise I wouldnt have nothing to write about We all end up at a crossroad in life and its something everyone can relate to in life I want people who read this to understand that a lot changes as we get older meet new people and experience new things All my poems are at certain times how I felt at that time or some I still feel the same way So much feeling and emotions went into this second book that you the readers will see and read for yourselves
