When I noticed you look
I'll have to wait a while

And she said

Come by night

Give me what you want to give

And I will wait for you

What the future brings

Come by night

Let me walk into your eyes

As I need to worry about anything

In the coming

Like a vision in the night

Countdown is clear and bright

And she said please it ends

And she says

Sea of Pools Kevin Robinson, 2014-03-11 We can only really know about love and life in hindsight Looking back on this linear poetic experiment called the Sea trilogy I've learnt a lot about what is important about the bigger experiment Through poetry I have been able to look deeper into my own and others' prejudices and fears loves and obsessions and I can honestly say I have been unburdened by this release of words and in many ways I'm very much healed For me nothing beats the ability to reach down to the soul and transform that intangible entity of fragile mortal thoughts into a substance that will transcend beyond the barriers of even death Nothing beats poetry Kevin Robinson
