Writing the Past in Twenty-First-Century American Fiction Alexandra Lawrie, 2022-07-11 Writing the Past in Twenty First Century American Fiction examines contemporary novels profoundly shaped by a sense of historical consciousness Authors including Ben Lerner Colson Whitehead Dana Spiotta Hari Kunzru and Garth Greenwell each use flashbacks historical parallels and non sequential narrative arrangements to emphasise the re emergence in a twenty first century context of historical structures and circumstances This study explores how these frequent moments of temporal slippage amount to a falling out of time as characters are forced to confront the past crises which continue to exert pressure on their own contemporary moment Hyperobject Reading, Scale Variance, and American Fiction in the Anthropocene Chingshun J. Sheu, 2023-03-25 This book proposes a model of reading called hyperobject reading that bridges the Anthropocene scale variance between humans and humanity by focusing on the large scale problems and phenomena themselves Hyperobject reading draws on narratology and reader response theory as well as newer developments such as the postcritical turn and object oriented ontology The theoretical introduction sets out the building blocks of hyperobject reading Chapter 2 intervenes in critical disability studies and debates about the ecosomatic paradigm Chapter 3 intervenes in debates about technological evolution analogue vs digital subjectivity and affect theory and Chapter 4 intervenes in debates about autofiction contemporary metafiction and the position and role of the narrator in first person narratives where the narrator and protagonist can be distinguished The analytical conclusion sketches the conceptual anatomy of the hyperobject and three possible responses No part of the Earth today is free from human influence but literary success suggests effective real world strategies A Paul Auster Sourcebook Carsten Springer, 2001 Both in the academic context and in secondary education Paul Auster's works enjoy a lasting popularity as study texts from the field of late twentieth century American fiction For the interpretation of this author's writings however it has proved indispensable to take into account the autobiographical and literary allusions which occur in his books and the cross references among them This volume answers to the need for accurate information by providing detailed material on the allusions and references in Auster's works Furthermore the book also contains data on earlier versions of Auster publications this material was compiled after a study of the novelist's original manuscripts and the most comprehensive bibliography of Auster's writings and criticism of his work to date The Self-begetting Novel Steven G. Kellman, 1980 "Crossing Brooklyn Ferry": The River and the Bridge. (exh.) Apr. 12 to May 10, 1963 Brooklyn Museum, Literature as Dialogue Roger D. Sell, 2014-08-15 How is it that some texts achieve the status of literature Partly at least because the relationship they allow between their writers and the people who respond to them is fundamentally egalitarian This is the insight explored by members of the bo literary communication network who in this new book develop fresh approaches to literary works of widely varied provenance The authors examined have written in Ancient Greek T'ng Dynasty Chinese Middle Modern and Contemporary English German Romanian Polish Russian and Hebrew But each and every one of them is shown as having offered their human fellows something which despite some striking appearances to the contrary amounts to a welcoming invitation This their audiences have then been able to negotiate in a spirit of dialogical interchange Part I of the book poses the question How in offering their invitation have writers respected their audiences human autonomy This is the province of what bo scholars call communicational criticism Part II asks how an audience negotiating a literary invitation can be encouraged to respect the human autonomy of the writer who has offered it In bo parlance such encouragement is the task of mediating criticism These two modes of criticism naturally complement each other and in their shared concern for communicational ethics ultimately seek to further a post postmodern world that would be global without being hegemonic The Novels and Tales of Henry James: The American Henry James, Percy Lubbock, 1907 Novels and Tales Henry James, 1922 The Novels and Tales of Henry James Henry James, 1922 Signs of the Signs William Brevda, 2011-05-16 This book is a study of signs in American literature and culture It is mainly about electric signs but also deals with non electric signs and related phenomena such as movie sets The sign is considered in both the architectural and semiotic senses of the word It is argued that the drama and spectacle of the electric sign called attention to the semiotic implications of the sign In fiction poetry and commentary the electric sign became a sign of manifold meanings that this book explores a sign of the city a sign of America a sign of the twentieth century a sign of modernism a sign of postmodernism a sign of noir a sign of naturalism a sign of the beats a sign of signs systems the Bible to Broadway a sign of tropes the Great White way to the neon jungle a sign of the writers themselves a sign of the sign itself If Moby Dick is the great American novel then it is also the great American novel about signs as the prologue maintains The chapters that follow demonstrate that the sign is indeed a sign of American literature After the electric sign was invented it influenced Stephen Crane to become a nightlight impressionist and Theodore Dreiser to make the fire sign his metaphor for the city An actual Broadway sign might have inspired F Scott Fitzgerald s The Great Gatsby In Manhattan Transfer and U S A John Dos Passos portrayed America as just a spectacular sign William Faulkner s electric signs are full of sound and fury signifying modernity The Last Tycoon was a sign of Fitzgerald s decline The signs of noir can be traced to Poe s The Man of the Crowd Absence flickers in the neons of Raymond Chandler s Los Angeles The death of God haunts the neon wilderness of Nelson Algren Hitler s empire was an non intentional parody of Nathanael West s California The beats reinvented Times Square in their own image Jack Kerouac s search for the center of Saturday night was a quest for transcendence
