At The Cross:

At the Cross with Jesus Carl B. Rife, Harold D. Shaffer, 2001 By combining a compelling sermon series with an insightful group of monologues At The Cross With Jesus offers flexible effective resources that will keep the cross central in your congregation s minds and hearts during Lent Practical for use in any church large or small the material in At The Cross With Jesus is perfect for midweek worship or Holy Week services and could also be used for a Bible study The five moving messages in The Symbols Of The Cross examine Jesus final days by focusing on powerful images from the Passion story Each homily relates these events to our everyday lives by exploring a specific symbol and the human characteristic it exemplifies There are also directions for creating a searing memory of these symbols by placing visual representations of each image on a wooden cross Symbols included are The Palms a symbol of our fickleness The Money Bag a symbol of our greed The Towel a symbol of servanthood The Crown of Thorns a symbol of mockery The Nails of the Cross a symbol of suffering In Five Who Knew Jesus five persons who were intimately acquainted with Jesus describe their personal relationships with him Through hearing the perspective of those who played critical roles in Jesus life we are encouraged to look more closely at our own relationships with Christ during the introspective season of Lent The monologues may be performed in readers theater format but are even more effective if memorized Few props are required and costumes are a nice touch but not essential Characters represented are John a hot tempered man who becomes the disciple of love Mary the mother of Jesus a woman who suffers a mother s pain while humbly accepting God s will Peter an arrogant man who becomes a humble disciple Judas the disciple who failed because he thought he knew best Mary Magdalene a woman of the world who strives to love herself as Jesus loved her Carl B Rife has pastored United Methodist congregations throughout Maryland and Pennsylvania for more than 30 years His sermons and worship resources have appeared in several CSS publications and he is the author of Bumper Sticker Religion CSS Harold D Shaffer an active member of St Stephen Lutheran Church in Arbutus Maryland is a licensed clinical counselor who currently serves on the staff of an addictions clinic in Catonsville Maryland Shaffer is also on the adjunct faculty of Baltimore City Community College and the Maryland Office of Education and Training for Addiction Services OETAS The Cross in Ritual, Architecture and Art Geo. Cross Veneration in the Medieval Islamic World Charles Tieszen,2016-02-28 One of the most common religious practices among medieval Eastern Christian communities was their devotion to venerating crosses and crucifixes Yet many of these communities existed in predominantly Islamic contexts where the practice was subject to much criticism and often resulted in accusations of idolatry How did Christians respond to these allegations Why did they advocate the preservation of a practice that was often met with confusion or even contempt To shed light onto these questions Charles Tieszen looks at every known apologetic or polemical text written between the eighth and fourteenth centuries to include a relevant discussion With sources taken from across the Mediterranean basin Egypt Syria and Palestine the result is the first in depth look at a key theological debate which lay at the heart of these communities religious identities By considering the perspectives of both Muslim and Christian authors Cross Veneration in the Medieval Islamic World also raises important questions concerning cross cultural debate and exchange and the development of Christianity and Islam in the medieval period This is an important book that will shine much needed light onto Christian Muslim relations the nature of inter faith debates and the wider issues facing the communities living across the Middle East during the medieval period
