Taber, Charlton W. Yingling, 2020-01-24 The tumult of the Age of Atlantic Revolutions provided new opportunities for free communities of color in the Caribbean yet the fact that much scholarship places an emphasis on a few remarkable individuals who pursued their freedom and respectability in a high profile manner can mask as much as it reveals Scholarship on these individuals focuses on themes of mobility and resilience and can overlook more subversive motives underrepresent individuals who remained in communities and elide efforts by some to benefit from racial hierarchies In these free communities displays of social cultural and symbolic capitals often reinforced systemic continuity and complicated revolutionary era tensions among the long free enslaved and recently freed This book contains seven fascinating studies which examine Haiti Caracas Cartagena Charleston Jamaica France the Netherlands Antilles and the Swedish Caribbean They explore how free communities of color deployed religion literature politics fashion the press history and the law in the Atlantic to defend their status and at times define themselves against more marginalized groups in a rapidly changing world This volume demonstrates that problems of belonging difference and hierarchy were central to the operation of Caribbean colonies Without recalibrating scholarship to focus on this we risk underappreciating how the varied motivations and ambitions of free people of color shaped the decline of empires and the formation of new states This book was originally published as a special issue of Atlantic Studies Women and Migration(s) II Kalia Brooks, Cheryl Finley, Ellyn Toscano, Deborah Willis, 2022-11-14 Women and Migration s II draws together contributions from scholars and artists showcasing the breadth of intersectional experiences of migration from diaspora to internal displacement Building on conversations initiated in Women and Migration Responses in Art and History this edited volume features a range of written styles from memoir to artists statements to journalistic and critical essays The collection shows how women's experiences of migration have been articulated through art film poetry and even food This varied approach aims to aid understanding of the lived experiences of home loss family belonging isolation borders and identity issues salient both in experiences of migration and in the epochal times in which we find ourselves today These are stories of trauma and fear but also stories of the strength perseverance hope and even joy of women surviving their own moments of disorientation disenfranchisement and dislocation This collection engages with current issues in an effort to deepen understanding encourage ongoing reflection and build a more just future It will appeal to artists and scholars of the humanities social sciences and public policy as well as general readers with an interest in women's experiences of migration Sojourners, Sultans, and Slaves Gunja SenGupta, Awam Amkpa, 2025-12-16 In the nineteenth century global systems of capitalism and empire knit the North Atlantic and Indian
