

CRISES IN POLICE ADMINISTRATION

WILLIAM J. BOPP

*Professor of Criminal Justice
Florida Atlantic University
Boca Raton, Florida*

Political problems, unionization, strikes, emergency laws — these and other current problems in police administration are covered in this book. Using case studies that highlight recurring police administrative problems, the author discusses the New York City experience in union issues, the role of a Boston labor union, and analyzes the West Point Beach experience with respect to properly re-evaluated management assignments of officers. The chapters on police unions describe a successful strike in Chicago, a virtually successful strike in San Francisco, and an unsuccessful strike in New Orleans. The book then discusses the long year strike between a Chicago teacher and 22,000 police, and it addresses an alternative in New Jersey to Atlanta. Concluding chapters discuss the relationship of police behavior to the quality and quality of service, and they explore labor police meetings in Palm Beach, Florida.
