Critique Of Judgement Trans Pluhar:

Kant's Critique of Judgment Ruth F. Chadwick, 1992 Immanuel Kant, Critical Assessments: Kant's Critique of Judgment Ruth F. Chadwick, Clive Cazeux, 1992 The Aesthetics of Food Kevin W. Sweeney, 2017-12-29 The Aesthetics of Food sets out the continuing philosophical debate about the aesthetic nature of food The debate begins with Plato's claim that only objects of sight and hearing could be beautiful consequently food as something we smell and taste could not be beautiful Plato's sceptical position has been both supported and opposed in one form or another throughout the ages This book demonstrates how the current debate has evolved and critically assesses that debate showing how it has been influenced by the changing nature of critical theory and changes in art historical paradigms Expressionism Modernism and Post modernism as well as by recent advances in neuroscience It also traces changes in our understanding of the sensory experience of food and drink from viewing taste as a simple single sense to current views on its complex multi sensory nature Particular attention is paid to recent philosophical discussion about wine whether an interest in a wine reflects only a subjective or personal preference or whether one can make objective judgments about the quality and merit of a wine Finally the book explores how the debate has been informed by changes in the cooking presenting and consuming of food for example by the appearance of the restaurant in the early nineteenth century as well as the rise of celebrity chefs Kant and the Concept of Race Jon M. Mikkelsen, 2013-08-01 Late eighteenth century writings on race by Kant and four of his contemporaries Kant and the Concept of Race features translations of four texts by Immanuel Kant frequently designated his Racenschriften race essays in which he develops and defends an early theory of race Also included are translations of essays by four of Kant's contemporaries E A W Zimmermann Georg Forster Christoph Meiners and Christoph Girtanner which illustrate that Kant's interest in the subject of race was part of a larger discussion about human differences one that impacted the development of scientific fields ranging from natural history to physical anthropology to biology Drama and the Death of God John Parker, 2026-01-15 In Drama and the Death of God John Parker argues that the secularity often associated with Shakespeare inspired a variety of performances going back to antiquity Scripture presupposes even needs the existence of a worldly sphere inimical to faith known as the saeculum this finite domain of appetite and unbelief invited both condemnation and celebration throughout medieval Christendom as exemplified by the songs and plays of the Carmina Burana After the tenth century Christians routinely impersonated unbelievers in music dramas connected to the high holidays so that they might question biblical truths especially the authenticity of miracles The church generated by this means a vision of the godless world that modernity stepped into After the English Reformation when Europe's first commercial theaters arose on ruined monastic estates players continued to showcase how divine intervention could be staged by humans in the absence of God King Lear in particular explores the ancient proposition that the saeculum holds no inherent meaning and is capable of generating only pseudomiraculous spectacles to salve the ache of existence Kant's

Philosophies of Judgement Douglas Burnham, 2004 This reading offers an interpretation of how Kant understands reflection presentation and activity Aspects include accounts of the transcendental object the implications of considering cognition as an activity the structure of sensible givenness Kant on the sublime and the moral argument The book draws on the works of Nietzsche Heidegger and Deleuze Burnham's wide ranging text includes treatments of key features in Kant's epistemology philosophy of mind aesthetics philosophy of religion and practical philosophy

Kant and the Decline of Classical Mimesis Martin John Gammon, 1997

Kant After Derrida Philip Rothfield, 2003 For many it remains a moot point whether Derrida is the final rationalist in the wake of the Kantian revolution in philosophy or whether he has furnished a definitive overthrow of the Kantian worldview Certainly Kantian concerns are dealt with across the whole body of Derrida's work Kant after Derrida is an edited collection of essays from an authoritative and international list of contributors that addresses the legacy of Kant after Derrida assessing the principal points of contact and dissonance between the Derridean deconstructive approach and Kant's critical method

Hegel's Theory of Aesthetic Judgment Robert Wicks, 1994 Wide ranging in its philosophical scope Hegel's Theory of Aesthetic Judgment critically examines the historical and logical foundations of judgments of beauty in G W F Hegel's philosophy of art Focusing on the traditional belief that beautiful things display ultimate truth this study begins with an illustration of how Kantian and Post Kantian theories of beauty gradually recognized the revelatory function of art Upon this background the author shows how Hegel's visionary understanding of beauty assumes that beauty is the experience of rational perfection Bringing Hegel's theory up to date the work concludes by applying the Hegelian style of artistic evaluation within the postmodern cultural environment

Kierkegaard's Instant David J. Kangas, 2007-05-31 In Kierkegaard's Instant David J Kangas reads Kierkegaard to reveal his radical thinking about temporality For Kierkegaard the instant of becoming in which everything changes in the blink of an eye eludes recollection and anticipation It constitutes a beginning always already at work As Kangas shows Kierkegaard's retrieval of the sudden quality of temporality allows him to stage a deep critique of the idealist projects of Fichte Schelling and Hegel By linking Kierkegaard's thought to the tradition of Meister Eckhart Kangas formulates the central problem of these early texts and puts them into contemporary light can thinking hold itself open to the challenges of temporality

Identity and Justice Debbie Rodan, 2004 Debbie Rodan adds breadth and depth to the field of literary cultural and gender studies through a meticulous investigation of notions such as re presentation justice and legitimation She examines their historical and philosophical trajectories as well as their politico juridical underpinnings through an ambitious and timely recuperation of the Enlightenment projects of rationality and emancipation The point of departure is a critical engagement with the theoretical work of John Rawls Jurgen Habermas and Jean Francois Lyotard Rodan claims each can be read as foregrounding diverse ways of constituting identity within the social world Recognition of other people's identity at the social cultural and national level is crucial to the possibility of justice Rodan tests the concepts of justice legitimation and identity through detailed critical readings analyses of a range of texts The range includes the film East is East a number of auto biographical narratives as well as the Australian government report Bringing Them Home which is concerned with the removal of Aboriginal children from their families She avoids polarising Aboriginal non Aboriginal notions of justice identity etc by including texts which raise and problematise questions of ethnicity and gender Heiberg's On the Significance of Philosophy for the Present Age and Other Texts Johan Ludvig Heiberg,2005 Introducing Philosophy Robert C. Solomon,1989 Based on the idea that philosophy is a truly exciting and accessible subject this engaging text acquaints students with the core problems of philosophy and the many ways in which they have been answered It acknowledges that philosophy is very much alive today but is also deeply rooted in the past in the many traditions that converge and diverge from ancient Greece ancient China and ancient India Accordingly the book combines substantial original sources from significant works in the history of philosophy with detailed commentary and explanation that help to clarify the readings The selections range from the oldest known fragments to cutting edge essays in feminism multiculturalism and cognitive science In this seventh edition the readings have been edited for clarity and conciseness and include new selections from The Economist Robert Kane John Corvino Cheshire Calhoun Nelson Mandela Mencius and Hsun Tsu Each chapter is followed by a summary a glossary and a bibliography with suggestions for further readings Important philosophical terms are carefully introduced within the text and also summarized at the end of each chapter and brief biographies of the philosophers are provided at the end of the book Ideal for courses in introductory philosophy Introducing Philosophy A Text with Integrated Readings 7 e presents students with various alternatives on critical philosophical issues and encourages them to arrive at their own conclusions Environmental Ethics Louis P. Pojman,Paul Pojman,2008 The most comprehensive introduction to environmental ethics available ENVIRONMENTAL ETHICS offers students a current look at the issues and topics that dominate the field today organized into two main parts that take students seamlessly from theory to application This Fifth Edition of the Pojmans popular anthology like its predecessors includes numerous topic areas not covered in other anthologies including an all new section on Climate Change Featuring articles carefully selected for clarity and accessibility the text follows a dialogic pro con format presenting divergent positions on each topic ensuring that students are both exposed to and understand both sides of every topic so they can develop their own informed positions The bulk of royalties for this book are donated to groups dedicated to protecting the environment such as the Wilderness Society and the Sierra Club New Essays in Fichte's Foundation of the Entire Doctrine of Scientific Knowledge Daniel Breazeale,Tom Rockmore,2001-10 This collection of 13 essays on the philosophy of Johann Gottlieb Fichte is the first volume in English to focus upon Fichte s most celebrated and influential philosophical text his Grundlage der gesamten Wissenschaftslehre Foundation of the Entire Doctrine of Scientific Knowledge Fichte s Grundlage is an audaciously original effort to recast the Kantian philosophy into a full blown system of transcendental idealism Rejecting all reference to things in themselves Fichte described his work as the first philosophy of human freedom and as a faithful expression of the true spirit of Kant's critical philosophy. For all of its deficiencies the Grundlage occupied an absolutely pivotal role in the development of German idealism after Kant. Both Schelling and Hegel, for example, were profoundly influenced by the Grundlage. Most of the essays in this collection address specific themes and problems in the context of the Grundlage, such as imagination, time, representation, reflection, deduction, and transcendental methodology. Others examine the relationship of Fichte's philosophy to Kant's and the influence of the Grundlage upon such philosophers as Jacobi, Schelling, and Hegel. Collectively, these essays constitute an ideal introduction to the reading of Fichte's notoriously difficult but deeply rewarding work.

On Schleiermacher and Gender Politics Patricia Ellen Guenther-Gleason, 1997 International Studies in Philosophy, 1974 Hegel's Ethical Thought and Feminist Social Criticism Jeffrey A. Gauthier, 1992 The Journal of Speculative Philosophy William Torrey Harris, 2011 Rethinking Kant Pablo Muchnik, 2008

This collection of essays bears witness to the richness and vitality of Kantian studies in North America. It contains the bulk of the papers presented at the Fourth Annual Meeting of the Eastern Study Group of the North American Kant Society (ENAKS) which took place at the University of Southern Maine in May 2007. It offers a sample of a whole generation of Kantian thought ranging from recent Ph.D.s to up and coming young scholars to some well-established and influential players in the field. Gathering voices from philosophers at all levels of their professional development, the goal of the collection is to offer a glimpse at the current state of Kantian scholarship in the US. The essays collected here cover some of the most important and controversial themes in Kant's philosophy: questions of freedom, the relation between anthropology and morality, the notion of the highest good, and Kant's teleology, radical evil, and revolution. The last section places Kant in the context of German Idealism and contemporary discussions in analytic philosophy and liberal political theory. Some critical, other exegetical or apologetic, all these essays show a sustained effort to Rethinking Kant and indicate his importance for current philosophical debates.
