present by the gamblers throughout our country This has been so entirely remodeled and changed as at present to bear no resemblance to the faro introduced by Mr Hoyle and as I have undertaken to expose the deceptions of this game I hope to be able to complete the task adhering strictly to the truth in such a manner as shall convince all of the immense evil of it and fully expose to all the artifices of those who play it indeed a man it will clearly appear would act more rationally and correctly to burn his money than to bet it on faro In both cases he would lose his money but in the former it would be lost without the sin of gambling being committed his time wasted and his reputation injured all these and more he will save by burning his money in preference to betting it on faro Mr Hoyle I doubt not little supposed that any one would wish to improve his games and there is only one Deceptions used in the Game of Faro class of persons that would wish to do so and that is the class of professional
