Crossing The Divide Dialogue Among Civilizations:

Crossing the Divide, 2001      Cultural Rights in International Law Elsa Stamatopoulou, 2007 Drawing from a comprehensive review of legal instruments practice jurisprudence and literature and using a multidisciplinary approach this unique book brings forth the full spectrum of cultural rights as individual and collective human rights and offers a compelling vision for public policy

Multiculturalism and International Law Sienho Yee, Jacques-Yvan Morin, 2009-01-01 This volume examines the role and influence of multiculturalism in general theories of international law in the composition and functioning of international organizations such as the ICJ the ILC the UN and the ICC and in the progressive development of substantive international law regarding issues such as anti terrorism cultural identity the Danish cartoons controversy indigenous peoples and cultural exemptions at the WTO With Forewords from Boutros Boutros Ghali and Shigeru Oda this authoritative volume contains contributions from 36 distinguished scholars from every continent of the world tackling multiculturalism and international law an ever more topical issue in honour of appropriately Edward McWhinney an eminent scholar who has spent a substantial part of his life promoting multiculturalism

Lourdes Arizpe Lourdes Arizpe, 2013-09-28 This book presents major texts by Prof Dr Lourdes Arizpe Schlosser a pioneering Mexican anthropologist on the occasion of her 70th birthday She is a leading researcher into indigenous peoples an innovator in women s studies and a global scientific leader who has inspired the international research and policy communities Throughout her distinguished career she has analysed ethnicism and indigenous peoples women in migratory flows cultural and social sustainability and intangible cultural heritage as social capital placing these issues on the world agenda for research and policy Several of the 12 major texts in this volume have been published since 1972 in the US Europe Latin America and India some were first published in Spanish and are available in English for the first time This anthology also includes recent unpublished texts on culture development and international cultural policy delivered at high level international meetings

Islam Vartan Gregorian, 2003-05-29 After World War II leading western powers focused their attention on fighting the Red Menace Communism Today as terrorist activity is increasingly linked to militant Islamism some politicians and scholars fear a Green Menace a Pan Islamic totalitarian movement fueled by monolithic religious ideology Such fears have no foundation in history according to Vartan Gregorian In this succinct powerful survey of Islam Gregorian focuses on Muslim diversity and division portraying the faith and its people as a mosaic not a monolith The book begins with an accessible overview of Islam s tenets institutions evolution and historical role Gregorian traces its origins and fundamental principles from Muhammad s call to faith nearly 1 400 years ago to the defeat of the Ottoman Empire in World War I and the subsequent abolition of the Caliphate He focuses particular attention on the intense struggle between modernists and traditionalists interaction between religion and nationalism and key developments that have caused bitter divisions among Muslim nations and states the partitions of Palestine the break up and Islamization of Pakistan the 1978 revolution in Iran and the 1979 Soviet invasion of

Afghanistan Today Islamist views range across the entire spectra of religious and political thought and Islamism is anything but a unified movement While religious extremists have attempted to form a confederacy of like minded radicals in many countries much of the Muslim population lives in relatively modern secular states Gregorian urges Westerners to distinguish between activist Islamist parties which promote sometimes violently Islam as an ideology in a theocratic state and Islamic parties whose traditional members want their secular political systems to co exist with the moral principles of their religion Gregorian emphasizes the importance of religion in today s world and urges states societies and intellectuals to intervene in order

Human Rights and Diverse Societies François Crépeau,2014-07-08 Over sixty years after the Universal Declaration of Human Rights it has been widely observed that human rights resonate differently in various settings This book addresses the timely and important question of how to understand human rights in a world of increasing diversity The effects of globalization and the increasing mobility of persons and peoples have further deepened and multiplied the sites of interaction between different cultures religions and ethnicities These changes have been a source of enrichment as multiculturalism interculturalism and diversity permeate our daily lives Yet they have also revealed important societal cleavages different conceptualizations of human rights and divergent values and beliefs about moral ethical cultural and religious issues In societies characterized by diverse social ethnic religious and cultural communities it becomes critical to examine how to reconcile the tensions between respect for group based identities and differences the robust protections of individual rights and freedoms and the maintenance of community solidarity and social cohesion It is these tensions mediated through debates about the interaction between human rights and diversity that this book addresses Eschewing any simple reconciliation of human rights and universalism this book aspires to identify alternative frameworks that can facilitate the conceptualization of and help find solutions to the complex global human rights issues in diverse societies In engaging with both the theoretical perspectives that question the universality of human rights as well as assessing the practicality of diverse applications of human rights this collection of essays explores how human rights can be employed to empower historically excluded and marginalized groups Taking diversity into account in thinking about the universal aspirations of human rights protection requires us to reframe the question Rather than asking whether human rights are universal we need to ask how the universal principles underlying human rights are practically and tangibly realized in diverse contexts and communities Through critical reflection and a reexamination of the concepts categories institutions and frontiers of human rights this book contributes to an ongoing dialogue about human rights discourse and theory Yet beyond its contribution to scholarly debates it is our hope that this book will contribute to the development of concrete tangible and institutional strategies for advancing the protection of human rights in diverse societies

United Nations Politics Donald Puchala,Katie Laatikainen,Roger Coate,2015-07-14 United Nations Politics takes a unique approach that focuses on the politics that is the persistent and mostly singular emphasis that all member states place on the pursuit of national political economic cultural and ideological interests of UN affairs The project began as an effort to research and write a ten year later sequel to The Challenge of Relevance written by Puchala and Coate in 1989 This earlier volume was an assessment of the United Nations and its operations in the late eighties United Nations Politics builds from a series of some 200 interviews conducted at the UN and in various member state missions between 2000 and 2005 Among other things these interviews revealed that the existing English language literature on the UN fails to take into appropriate account the dynamics and the impacts of the internal and external political contexts within which the UN operates This book directly addresses this shortcoming in the academic literature Civilizing Peace Building Wendy M. Sargent,2016-05-23 Highlighting the high price paid by the United Nations and international peace builders that under utilize the reflexive new paradigm approach to international relations IR this study develops an overview of IR theory relied on by governmental and diplomatic communities as a guide to peace building Especially significant is the development of IR theory in relation to religious extremism and tendencies towards barbarism with modernities It discusses outcomes such as the exponential growth of international enmity between diverse populations and public demonization of the religious or ethnic other expressed most recently through the War on Terror Central to this research is the emerging debate on the impact of religious and cultural identity on IR and peace building While many IR books continue to research positivist approaches Sargent looks at the concept of structural violence as identified using post positive approaches This book rethinks peace building outside the limits of ideological difference Canadian Multiculturalism Mathew Zachariah,Canadian Multicultural Education Foundation,2004 Peace and Intercultural Dialogue Gheikh Mbacké Gueye,2005 Official Records ,2007 Annual Report - Carnegie Corporation of New York Carnegie Corporation of New York,2001 Report for 1921 22 includes a summary of all preceding grants of the corporation since its inception in 1911 The Iranian Journal of International Affairs ,2005 Subverting Hatred Daniel L. Smith-Christopher,2007 Representatives of nine world religions offer insights into the teachings of nonviolence within their tradition how practice has often fallen short of the ideals and how they can overcome the contagion of hatred through a return to traditional teachings on nonviolence War and Peace in World Religions Perry Schmidt-Leukel,2004 Key Points A unique collection of the widest variety of authoritative views pulled together here in one easily accessible resource available for the first time Authors include the leading authoritative voices of Hans Kung Perry Schmidt Leukel and Lloyd Ridgeon The Human Right to Peace Douglas Roche,2003 The peoples of the Earth have a sacred right to peace This is the conviction and the theme of this new book by Douglas Roche who builds upon a long career in politics diplomacy and social activism in examining the requirements for peace in the post September 11th world Report of the President Carnegie Corporation of New York,Vartan Gregorian,2002 SGI Quarterly ,2002 Peace culture and education from a Buddhist perspective The End of Tolerance? Alfred Herrhausen Gesellschaft für Internationalen Dialog,2002 The authors of this work consider the origins of tolerance and trace them back to the world
