Alligator In The Sky:

Alligator in the Sky Joseph Pacheco, 2005-08 Epilogue Turning left on Dixie Beach Road the night after Hurricane Jeanne sideswiped us I caught a mournful moon peeking at me above her veil of remnant hurricane cloud wanting to share my loss of island afraid to commit that indiscretion Hipster poet nature poet prankster poet oracular poet Nuyorican and political poet Joseph Pacheco proves his mettle as a versifying technician whether it s in his own brand of bebop free verse or funk a fortified rap which reminds us that poetry is a pleasure after all It is no surprise that these highly accessible poems have been projected nationally over the airwaves on National Public Radio I like to think that these radio signals are forever shooting outward Pacheco s poems into deep space If we are lucky the signal may be picked up by radio telescopes on some Planet X and those heavenly aliens will then have some of our capacity for wonderment joy and love For those of us who live in Florida which is America concentrate we are especially in need of poets as irreverent and wise as Joe Pacheco James Brock
