The Allyn and Bacon Guide to Peer Tutoring Paula Gillespie, Neal Lerner, 2000 Grounded in current writing center theory and practice The Allyn Bacon Guide to Peer Tutoring provides students with a comprehensive introduction to effective tutoring Throughout the text readers hear the voices of tutors and writers in first person peer tutor accounts reflective essays and transcripts from actual sessions Within each chapter techniques models and exercises provide instruction appropriate for any level of tutoring

The Writing Center Director's Resource Book Christina Murphy, Byron Stay, 2012-11-12 The Writing Center Director s Resource Book has been developed to serve as a guide to writing center professionals in carrying out their various roles duties and responsibilities It is a resource for those whose jobs not only encompass a wide range of tasks but also require a broad knowledge of multiple issues The volume provides information on the most significant areas of writing center work that writing center professionals both new and seasoned are likely to encounter It is structured for use in diverse institutional settings providing both current knowledge as well as case studies of specific settings that represent the types of challenges and possible outcomes writing center professionals may experience This blend of theory with actual practice provides a multi dimensional view of writing center work In the end this book serves not only as a resource but also as a guide to future directions for the writing center which will continue to evolve in response to a myriad of new challenges that will lie ahead

Changing Spaces Arlene Archer, Rose Richards, 2011-07-01 Changing Spaces makes a forceful and credible case for the role of writing centres in engaging with students staff and institutional structures in understanding issues of access from a social perspective This is a specialist book for those working in writing centres and for academics of all disciplines It is based on research and provides an important set of theoretical arguments developed through reflection on writing centre practices about student writing and the work of the university Professor Sioux McKenna Centre for Higher Education Research Teaching and Learning Rhodes University How do we select and train tutors How do we work with faculty How do we combat the image that we are remedial a fix it shop How do we prove our worth How do we show that we improve retention Changing Spaces demonstrates the flexibility of writing centers and the unique roles they play in South Africa Writing centers everywhere represent institutional responses to the learning needs of their students and they do so because writing centers adapt easily to different contexts and situations They meet students where they are as a group and individually Professor Leigh Ryan Writing Center Director University of Maryland USA Around the Texts of Writing Center Work R. Mark Hall,2017-05-01 Around the Texts of Writing Center Work reveals the conceptual frameworks found in and created by ordinary writing center documents The values and beliefs underlying course syllabi policy statements website copy and comments assessment plans promotional flyers and annual reports critically inform writing center practices including the vital undertaking of tutor education In each chapter author R Mark Hall focuses on a particular document He examines its origins its use by writing center instructors and tutors and its engagement with enduring disciplinary challenges in the field of composition such as tutoring and program assessment He then analyzes each document in the contexts of the conceptual framework at the heart of its creation and everyday application activity theory communities of practice discourse analysis reflective practice and inquiry based learning Around the Texts of Writing Center Work approaches the analysis of writing center documents with an inquiry stance a call for curiosity and skepticism toward existing and proposed conceptual frameworks in the hope that the theoretically conscious evaluation and revision of commonplace documents will lead to greater efficacy and more abundant research by writing center administrators and students The Writing Center as Cultural and Interdisciplinary Contact Zone Randall W. Monty,2016-05-05 Writing centers are complex They are places of scholarly work spaces of interdisciplinary interaction and programs of service among other things With this complexity in mind this book theorizes writing center studies as a function of its own rhetorical and discursive practices In other words the things we do and make define who we are and what we value Through a comprehensive methodological framework grounded in critical discourse analysis this book takes a closer look at prominent writing center discourses by temporarily shifting attention away from the stakeholders work locations and scholarship of the discipline and onto things the artifacts and networks that make up the discipline Through this approach we can see the ways the discipline reinforces challenges reproduces and subverts structures of institutional power As a result writing center studies can be seen a vast ecosystem of interconnectivity and intertextuality The Longman Guide to Peer Tutoring Paula Gillespie,Neal Lerner,2008 Why we tutor The writing process The tutoring process Examining expectations Observing in the writing center Tutoring practice Reflecting on the first session Reading in the writing center Working with ESL writers Writing center research Writing centers historical and theoretical contexts Interdisciplinary and on line tutoring What if Creative Approaches to Writing Center Work Kevin Dvorak, Shanti Bruce, 2008 This is the first book length attempt to address the role creativity plays in writing centers Beginning with the premise that creativity has the potential to make work and learning environments more productive and possibly more dangerous the ideals in this collection will complicate visions of what writing centers can and should be Striking a balance between theory and practice readers will learn about creative tutor training and staff meeting activities how to use toys to tutor and how to tutor creative writers and finally how to implement creative outreach programs Those who are in search of ways to infuse their centers with creativity and fun will find this book to be an invaluable inspirational resource

Preparing Educators for Online Writing Instruction Beth L. Hewett, Christa Ehmann, 2004 Offers a theoretical justification for online writing instruction OWI as well as a detailed approach to training educators for such instruction Examples of training methods for both real time and asynchronous systems are accompanied by illustrations and screen shots The authors developers of online instructional programs at Smarthinking Inc also show how five main pedagogical principles can inform online instructor training independent of the platform being used The volume concludes with a glossary and findings from a study on how students use OWI

Writing on the Edge, 2014 Identity Papers Bronwyn T Williams, 2006-09-30 How do definitions of literacy in the academy and the pedagogies that reinforce such definitions influence and shape our identities as teachers scholars and students The contributors gathered here reflect on those moments when the dominant cultural and institutional definitions of our identities conflict with our other identities shaped by class race gender sexual orientation location or other cultural factors These writers explore the struggle identify the sources of conflict and discuss how they respond personally to such tensions in their scholarship teaching and administration They also illustrate how writing helps them and their students compose alternative identities that may allow the connection of professional identities with internal desires and senses of self They emphasize how identity comes into play in education and literacy and how institutional and cultural power is reinforced in the pedagogies and values of the writing classroom and writing profession

Judaic Perspectives in Rhetoric and Composition Andrea Greenbaum, Deborah H. Holdstein, 2008 There has been virtually little discussion about how Judaism whether as a religious doctrine or cultural identity has influenced the field of composition studies This chasm in composition scholarship is surprising given that composition studies has been a discipline that has vigorously claimed to embrace and advocate a policy of diversity This book explores the myriad configurations of Judaic influences in composition studies that have yet to be articulated but that are made manifest in the theory and pedagogy of radical critical teaching service learning and narratives of literacy identity and politics Further the text explores how Judaic rhetorical texts can be used to reconstruct traditional rhetoric through its use of language style and symbolism

Marginal Words, Marginal Work? William J. Macauley, Nicholas Mauriello, 2007 How can we tutor our campus communities administrators faculty and students toward the most effective use of writing center resources Based on the premise that writing centers know how to guide learners toward more productive and successful work this volume includes scholarship that provides historical theoretical and practical guidance for both writing centers and their campus communities This collection focuses on helping the academy understand writing centers and more importantly articulates how writing centers move beyond remediation and become centers of learning and teaching through fostering productive working relationships

Composing Other Spaces Douglas Reichert Powell, John Paul Tassoni, 2009 From publisher's description These essays ask how place and space shape the conflicts challenges and opportunities of writing instruction What new tactics for writing and the teaching of writing are required to adequately account for and engage with the complexities of composition's spaces and places

What the Writing Tutor Needs to Know Margot Soven, 2006 This text provides a quick basic introduction to the essentials of peer tutoring Study questions questions for research projects and exercises at the end of each chapter help prepare readers for the challenges they will face in the tutoring environment This title is one of THE WADSWORTH GUIDES TO COMPOSITION STUDIES a new series designed to help upper level undergraduate and beginning graduate students gain a historical theoretical and practical context for their studies in composition and the teaching of writing Each guide in this series examines a particular aspect of the composition specialist's work for example teaching first year composition administration related issues and writing as it is taught across campus Providing theoretical information within a practical context each guide is designed to provide the historical knowledge and terminology that beginning students in the field need to understand

Bibliographic Guide to Education 2003 GK Hall, 2004-10 The Bibliographic Guide to Education lists recent publications cataloged during the past year by Teachers College Columbia University supplemented by publications in the field of education cataloged by The Research Libraries of The New York Public Library selected on the basis of subject headings Non book materials including theses are included in this Guide with the exception of serials All aspects and levels of education are represented in this Guide including such areas as American elementary and secondary education higher and adult education early childhood education history and philosophy of education applied pedagogy international and comparative education educational administration education of the culturally disadvantaged and physically handicapped nursing education and education of minorities and women Also well covered are the administrative reports of departments of education for various countries and for U S states and large cities The Teachers College collection covers over 200 distinct educational systems Works in all languages are included The Bibliographic Guide to Education serves in part as an annual supplement to the Dictionary Catalog of the Teachers College Library Columbia University G K Hall Second Supplement 1973 Third Supplement 1977 Negotiating Religious Faith in the Composition Classroom Elizabeth Vander Lei, Bonnie Lenore Kyburz, 2005 Resource added for the Communication 108011 courses Refiguring Prose Style T.R. Johnson, Tom Pace, 2005-10-30 For about two decades say Johnson and Pace the discussion of how to address prose style in teaching college writing has been stuck with style standing in as a proxy for other stakes in the theory wars The traditional argument is evidently still quite persuasive to some that teaching style is mostly a matter of teaching generic conventions through repetition and practice Such a position usually presumes the traditional view of composition as essentially a service course one without content of its own On the other side the shortcomings of this argument have been much discussed that it neglects invention revision context meaning even truth that it is not congruent with research that it ignores 100 years of scholarship establishing composition's intellectual territory beyond service The discussion is stuck there and all sides have been giving it a rest in recent scholarship Yet style remains of vital practical interest to the field because everyone has to teach it one way or another A consequence of the impasse is that a theory of style itself has not been well articulated Johnson and Pace suggest that moving the field toward a better consensus will require establishing style as a clearer subject of inquiry Accordingly this collection takes up a comprehensive study of the subject Part I explores the recent history of composition studies the ways it has figured and all but effaced the whole question of prose style Part II takes to heart Elbow's suggestion that composition and literature particularly as conceptualized in the context of creative writing courses have something to learn from each other Part III sketches practical classroom procedures for heightening students' abilities to engage style and part IV explores new theoretical frameworks for defining this vital and much neglected territory The hope of the essays here focusing as they do on historical aesthetic practical and theoretical issues is to awaken composition studies to the possibilities of style and in turn to rejuvenate a great many classrooms
