Along the Kent Coast Ray Hollands, Paul Harris, 2003 This book is a unique photographic record of a journey along the Kent coastline From the starkness of Dungeness in the south to the magisterial sweep of Dartford Bridge in the north the descriptions of Paul Harris and the contemporary photographs of Ray Hollands capture the county's rich variety of town and landscape its ancient fortifications and modern harbours its busy riverways hidden creeks and isolated headlands But it is above all the unusual the hidden and the bizarre that this book reveals the images presented here record both precise moments in time and place and yet suggest timeless almost sculptural qualities Whether the scene be dramatic or everyday whether the site be well known or unfrequented Along the Kent Coast offers a new perspective that will continuously surprise and delight both those familiar with Kent and the tourist or traveller just passing through These are images to treasure to look at and cherish time and time again

Borderland Phil Hubbard, 2022-06-28 Over recent years the issues of Brexit COVID and the migrant crisis put Kent in the headlines like never before Images of asylum seekers on Kent beaches lorries queued on motorways and the crumbling white cliffs of Dover all spoke to national anxieties and were used to support ideas that severing ties with the EU was the best or worst thing the UK has ever done In this coastal driftwork Phil Hubbard an exiled man of Kent considers the past present and future of this corner of England alighting on a number of key sites which symbolise the changing relationship between the UK and its continental neighbours Moving from the geopolitics of the Channel Tunnel to the cultivation of oysters at Whitstable from Derek Jarman's feted cottage at Dungeness to the art fuelled gentrification of Margate Borderland bridges geography history and archaeology to pose important questions about the way that national identities emerge from contested local landscapes
