Early Literacy Instruction
John A. Smith, Sylvia Read, 2005. This introductory K-3 literacy instruction text details authentic classroom practice by authors who have recently taught in primary and elementary classrooms. Organized around a comprehensive reading and writing instructional framework, the text balances the authors' rich classroom experiences with a theoretical perspective. The authors also share a wealth of practical teaching strategies, authentic student artifacts, and real teaching examples. The chapter opening vignettes demonstrate real-world classroom encounters; the phonics and assessment chapters provide especially useful classroom guidance and the effective strategies offered to help English Language Learners and Struggling Readers in Chapter 11 and in text features throughout the book make this new text a valuable choice for teacher education.

Let's Read! Elizabeth Crosby Stull, 2000. This unique resource helps educators spark young children's interest in learning the alphabet and develop beginning reading skills right from the beginning to the close of school. Included are over 500 ready-to-use individual and classroom activities designed to be used sequentially from one month to the next to build skills related to reading and other curriculum areas and foster children's enthusiasm for books and learning to read. All activities are organized into nine monthly sections (September through May/June) and include over 100 activity sheets. Each month includes a list of 10 picture books for daily reading, phonics and other basic skills instructions, ABC Marching Band Letters for learning letter-sound connections, reading links to holidays and special events, reading links to writing, math, social studies, science, health, author of the month studies, and activities plus 10-13 illustrated reproducible activities.
