Alt 22 Exile African Literature:

New Directions in African Literature Ernest Emenyonu, Patricia Thornton Emenyonu, F. D. Imbuga, 2006 Contributors to this volume ask what are the new directions of African literature What should be the major concerns of writers critics and teachers in the twenty first century What are the accomplishments and legacies What gaps remain to be filled and what challenges are there to be addressed by publishers and the book industry What are the implications for pedagogy in the new technological era ERNEST EMENYONU is Professor of the Department of Africana Studies University of Michigan Flint North America Africa World Press Nigeria HEBN Childhood in African Literature Eldred D. Jones, Marjorie Jones, 1998 African authors have consistently returned to childhood to find their personal as well as their racial roots Far from being merely nostalgic yearnings for a lost paradise many of the treatments of childhood as shown in articles in this issue have exposed a grim reality of cruelty harshness parental particularly paternal egocentrism and extraordinary bruising of the vulnerable child psyche Camara Laye may have portrayed a paradise state but Yvonne Vera has treated one of the cruelest features of childhood anywhere African authors generally have been sternly responsible in their portrayal of childhood Publisher's description Speculative & Science Fiction Ernest N. Emenyonu, Chimalum Nwankwo, Louisa Uchum Egbunike, 2021 Over the past two decades there has been a resurgence in the writing of African and African diaspora speculative and science fiction writing Discussions around the rise of science fiction and fantasy have led to a push back by writers and scholars who have suggested that this is not a new phenomenon in African literature This collection focuses on the need to recalibrate ways of reading and categorising this genre of African writing through critical examinations both of classics such as Kofi Awoonor's Woman of the Aeroplanes 1988 and Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o's oeuvre as well as more recent fiction from writers including Nnedi Okorafor Namwali Serpell and Masande Ntshanga Back cover Teaching African Literature Today Ernest Emenyonu, 2011 Focuses on theoretical and pedagogical approaches to the teaching of African literature on both sides of the Atlantic and beyond The publication of Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart in 1958 drew universal attention not only to contemporary African creative imagination but also established the art of the modern African novel In 1986 Wole Soyinka became the first African to win the Nobel Prize for Literature and opened the gate for other African writers By the close of the 20th century African literature had gained world wide acceptance and legitimacy in the academy and featured on the literature curriculum of schools and colleges across the globe This special issue of African Literature Today examines the diverse experiences of teachers of African literature across regional racial cultural and national boundaries It explores such issues as student responses productive pedagogical innovations the impact of modern technology case studies of online teaching teaching criticism of African literature and teaching African literature in an age of multiculturalism It is intended as an invaluable teacher's handbook and essential student companion for the effective study of African literature War in African Literature Today Ernest Emenyonu, 2008 This issue of African Literature Today is devoted to studies of how African writers as historical witnesses have handled the recreation of war as a cataclysmic phenomenon in various locations on the continent The theoretical question is whether the fictionalized representation demonstrated equitable balance between socio political messages lessons of war and the sanctity of art aesthetics Contributors have explore the subject from a variety of perspectives panoramic regional national and through comparative studies Was has enriched contemporary African literature but at what price to human lives peace and the environment

Publisher s description New Women's Writing in African Literature Ernest Emenyonu,Simon Gikandi,2004 African women writers have come a long way from the 1960s when they were hardly noticed as serious writers Since the 1960s female writing in Africa has been steadily rising in quantity and quality This work shows how their literature is redefining images of womanhood African Literature Today ,2004 Research in African Literatures ,2001 Vol 1 spring 1970 include A Bibliography of American doctoral dissertations on African literature compiled by Nancy J Schmidt New Novels in African Literature Today Ernest Emenyonu,2010 This work discusses the validity of the perception that the new generation of African novelists is different in vision style and worldview from the older generation The 13 papers have been carefully selected to highlight the contention that the previous generation made culture conflict their sole theme African Literature Today Ernest Emenyonu,2019 AFRICAN LITERATURE TODAY was established at a time of uncertainty and reconstruction but for 50 years it has played a leading role in nurturing imaginative creativity and its criticism on the African continent and beyond South & Southern African Literature Eldred D. Jones,Marjorie Jones,2002 The end of the apartheid in South Africa has meant that the literature of protest need no longer dominate creative output This title looks at the realities of independent African nations as expressed in song and literature The African Book Publishing Record ,2001 Black African Literature in English Bernth Lindfors,1979 Black African Literature in English, 1987-1991 Bernth Lindfors,1995 Black African Literature in English 1987 1991 is the continuation of the 1982 1986 and earlier volumes compiled by Bernth Lindfors and lists all the important works produced on Anglophone black African literature published between 1987 and 1991 Containing almost 9 000 entries some of which are annotated to identify the authors discussed it covers books and periodical articles as well as providing selective coverage of other relevant sources of informed commentary Also included are a very substantial number of articles which have appeared in African newspapers and magazines South African historical journal ,1995-05 MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures ,2008 The Contemporary Novel Irving Adelman,Rita Dworkin,1997-10-09 In this new edition what was already an expansive work has been updated and further enlarged to include information not only on American and British novelists but also on writers in English from around the world Afrikanische Literatur in der Kritik Martin Schinke,1989 A Dictionary of Christian Biography and Literature to the End of the Sixth Century A.D. Henry Wace,William Coleman Piercy,1911 The Ensphering Mind James Wieland,1988
