Alternatives To Imprisonment:

Alternatives to Imprisonment in Comparative Perspective Uglješa Zvekić, 1994 This publication consists of two volumes V 1 presents regional and case study reports volume 2 presents a review of the literature and the International bibliography of alternatives to imprisonment 1980 1989 Alternatives to Prison Sentences J. Junger-Tas, 1994 This report surveys and summarizes the literature on the use of alternative sanctions in 12 western countries with a particular focus on its effectiveness and efficiency Alternatives to Imprisonment in Comparative Perspective Uglješa Zvekić, Anna Alvazzi del Frate, 1994 Alternatives to Prison Anthony Bottoms, Sue Rex, Gwen Robinson, 2013-01-11 As the UK and many other western societies face up to the consequences of a rapidly increasing prison population so the search for alternative approaches to punishment and dealing with offenders has become an increasingly urgent priority for government policy and society as a whole This book reports the results of the research programme commissioned by the Coulsfield Inquiry into Alternatives to Prison which was funded by the Esm e Fairbairn Rethinking Crime and Punishment initiative It is written by leading authorities in the field and provides a comprehensive authoritative and wide ranging review of the range of issues associated with the use of noncustodial sanctions examining experiences in Scotland and Northern Ireland as well as England and Wales Alternatives to Imprisonment, Study of community corrections in Sweden provides policy guidance based on highly original research and profound thought that should interest and benefit all who are concerned with alternatives to imprisonment A World Without Prisons Calvert R. Dodge, 1979 A Nation Without Prisons Calvert R. Dodge, 1975 Alternatives to Prison Jody Soper, 1979 Radical Alternatives to Prison and the Penal Lobby Mick Ryan, 1978 Alternatives to Incarceration Ebony L. Ruhland, 2025-09-19 Mass incarceration has been an ongoing problem in the United States There have been several research studies that explain the causes and consequences of mass incarceration A major contributor to incarceration is what happens in community supervision In several states many prison admissions result from technical violations from community supervision Historically alternatives to incarceration were developed to reduce prison populations and decrease the fiscal cost of incarceration They were to function as a diversion away from prison Alternatives also keep people in the community while holding them accountable and protecting community safety Yet given the high violations and revocations rather than serving as an alternative to incarceration community supervision becomes a delayed prison sentence The book underscores the importance of ongoing research and the need for effective strategies to reduce violations and revocations There is a clear need for more research to explore what works in reducing violations and revocations including the factors that contribute to these issues This ongoing exploration is crucial for the continued development and improvement of community corrections Chapters in this book address how barriers such as mental illness COVID 19 and financial constraints may impede success on supervision and highlight in the findings ways to increase success despite these barriers Further two chapters provide results on two commonly used strategies in community corrections risk assessments and electronic monitoring The chapter s findings build on previous works and provide recommendations for policy and research This book advances knowledge on reducing violations and revocations and increasing success in community supervision It was originally published as a special issue of Corrections Policy Practice and Research

Alternatives to Prison Antony A. Vass,1990 An outline and critical appraisal of alternatives to custody this book is written in response to escalating prison costs severe overcrowding and rising recidivism rates It assesses the validity of punishment in the community as a means of solving some of these problems Alternatives to Prison Antony A. Vass,1990 This comprehensive and accessible textbook outlines and critically appraises alternatives to custody At a time of escalating prison costs severe overcrowding and rising recidivism rates punishment in the community is widely seen as the means by which these problems can be solved How valid is this claim Vass traces the development of the prison its recurrent crises and the search for workable alternatives Can alternative punishments succeed in diverting offenders from imprisonment or will they inevitably be used as extra punitive measures by the court How will they be enforced What will their effect be on both offenders and the community at large Drawing on international experiences of diverting offenders from custody through means such as tagging and electronic monitoring he warns that in the absence of a coherent criminal justice policy these measures are unlikely to provide a solution He assesses the challenges faced by probation and welfare services in having to develop punishment in the community Among other alternatives including tagging and probation day centres Vass also presents case study accounts drawing on firsthand experience of a community service order Always engaging and lively Alternatives to Prison will be an essential textbook for students of sociology social policy social work criminology youth and community work Practitioners and policymakers in criminal justice probation and social work will also benefit from its timely and important analysis and overview of the situation Prison Alternatives and Rehabilitation Craig Russell,2018 The United States has almost three times as many prisoners as it did just twenty five years ago Although the cost of keeping people in prison is rising there are less expensive alternatives that may also be more effective at keeping people from returning to jail after they are released Recent changes in the U S criminal code allow judges more freedom to give sentences other than prison Of the almost seven million convicted criminals in the U S only about two million of them are behind bars The rest nearly five million are serving alternative sentences This book explores the various prison alternatives from rehabilitation and community service to boot camps day reporting and house arrest Prison Alternatives and Rehabilitation provides a comprehensive look at the advantages and disadvantages of nontraditional punishments and what the future may hold for alternatives to prison PUBLISHER S NOTE Each title in this series contains a foreword from the Associate Dean of the John Jay College of Criminal Justice color photos throughout charts and back matter that includes an index and further resource lists of books and Internet resources Key Icons appear throughout the books in this series encouraging library readers to build knowledge gain awareness explore possibilities and expand their viewpoints through our

Ubuntu as a moral theory and human rights in South Africa 2011 11 African Human Rights Law Journal 532 559 with 273 citations ii D Cornell and K van Marle Exploring ubuntu Tentative reflections 2005 5 African Human Rights Law Journal 195 220 with 97 citations iii S Tamale Exploring the contours of African sexualities Religion law and power 2014 14 African Human Rights Law Journal 150 177 with 85 citations K Kindiki The normative and institutional framework of the African Union relating to the protection of human rights and the maintenance of international peace and security A critical appraisal 2003 3 African Human Rights Law Journal 97 117 with 59 citations and T Kaime The Convention on the Rights of the Child and the cultural legitimacy of children s rights in Africa Some reflections 2005 5 African Human Rights Law Journal 221 238 with 54 citations This occasion allows some perspective on the role that the Journal has played over the past 20 years It is fair to say that the AHRLJ contributed towards strengthening indigenous African scholarship in general and human rights related themes specifically Before the Journal there was no academic outlet devoted to human rights in the broader African context Both in quantity and in quality the Journal has left its mark on the landscape of scholarly journals The AHRLJ has provided a forum for African voices including those that needed to be fine tuned Different from many other peerreviewed journals the AHRLJ has seen it as its responsibility to nurture emerging but not yet fully flourishing talent This approach allowed younger and emerging scholars to be guided to sharpen their skills and find their scholarly voices The AHRLJ has evolved in tandem with the African regional human rights system in a dialogic relationship characterised by constructive criticism When the Journal was first published in 2001 the Protocol on the Establishment of an African Court on Human and Peoples Rights African Court Protocol was not yet in force Over the years the Journal tracked the evolution of the African Court on Human and Peoples Rights African Court from a faltering start through a phase when it increasingly expressed itself in an emerging jurisprudence to the current situation of push back by states signalled by the withdrawal by four states of their acceptance of the Court s direct individual access jurisdiction The same is largely true for the African Committee of Experts on the Rights and Welfare of the Child African Children s Committee It was in 2001 that the AU elected the first members of this Committee It first met in 2002 and its first decade or so was lackluster The Committee examined its first state report only in November 2008 and decided its first communication in March 2011 Articles by authors such as Mezmur and Sloth Nielsen who also served as members of the Committee and Lloyd placed the spotlight on the work of the Committee Initially these articles primarily served to describe and provide information that otherwise was largely inaccessible but over time they increasingly provided a critical gaze and contributed to the constructive evolution of the Committee s exercise of its mandate By 2011 the African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights African Commission was already quite well established but it also underwent significant growth over the subsequent 20 year period Numerous articles in the Journal trace and analyse aspects of this evolution Contributions in the Journal also cover most of the AU human rights treaties and soft law standards A number of issues contain a special focus section dealing with a thematic issue of particular relevance or concern such as the focus on the Protocol to the African Charter on the Rights of Women 2006 no 1 30 years of the African Charter 2011 no 2 and sexual and reproductive rights and the African Women s Protocol 2014 no 2 The scope of the Journal extends beyond the supranational dimension of human rights Over the years many contributions explored aspects of the domestic human rights situation in countries such as the Democratic Republic of the Congo Eswatini Ethiopia Lesotho Malawi Mauritius Nigeria South Africa Tanzania Uganda and Zimbabwe From time to time the specific focus sections also veered towards domestic human rights protection See for instance the focus on 20 years of the South African Constitution 2014 no 2 on adolescent sexual and reproductive rights in the African region 2017 no 2 on the rule of law in sub Saharan Africa 2018 no 1 and on dignity taking and dignity restorations 2018 no 2 Alternatives to Imprisonment in England and Wales, Germany and Turkey Öznur Sevdiren,2011-02-24 The book focuses on one of the most problematic areas of Turkish penal justice the overreliance on custodial measures and a corresponding growth in the prison population and compares Turkey with two major European countries in this respect England and Wales and Germany The underlying question throughout the study is the extent to which prison alternatives can be seen as genuine alternatives to immediate custodial sentences
