Black Fugitive:

The Life and Sufferings of Leonard Black, a Fugitive from Slavery Leonard Black, 1847 Sheldon Wolin and

Democracy Lucy Cane, 2020-05-12 Lucy Cane presents the first full length study of Sheldon Wolin 1922-2015 an influential theorist of democracy and prescient critic of inverted totalitarianism in the United States She traces the development of Wolin's thinking over sixty years offering an overarching interpretation of his central preoccupations and shifts in perspective Framed around themes of loss and mourning this is not only an intellectual biography but also a critical engagement of Wolin's work with democratic theory more broadly and an assessment of its value for addressing contemporary crises of democracy Cane brings Wolin into conversation with other contemporary theorists from Chantal Mouffe to Edward Said as well as with his direct intellectual influences She argues that his mournful tendencies continue to offer unique insight into the potential loss of local democratic cultures in an era of neoliberal precarity At the same time she questions whether his politics of mourning can adequately grasp the dynamics of democratic coalition building or the value of new political movements and ideas Sheldon Wolin and Democracy remedies a lack of interpretive studies of this key thinker connects divergent strands of contemporary theory and addresses urgent democratic dilemmas It is a must read for all political theorists and others in the academy and beyond who seek to conceptualize the fate of democracy amidst the rise of right wing populist movements in the twenty first century Performing Postracialism Philip S.S. Howard, 2023-02-14

Blackface instances in which non Black persons temporarily darken their skin with make up to impersonate Black people usually for fun and frequently in educational contexts constitutes a postracialist pedagogy that propagates antiblack logics In Performing Postracialism Philip S S Howard examines instances of contemporary blackface in Canada and argues that it is more than a simple matter of racial misrepresentation The book looks at the ostensible humour and dominant conversations around blackface arguing that they are manifestations of the particular formations of antiblackness in the Canadian nation state and its educational institutions It posits that the occurrence of blackface in universities is not incidental and outlines how educational institutions responses to blackface in Canada rely upon a motivation to protect whiteness Performing Postracialism draws from focus groups and individual interviews conducted with university students faculty administrators and Black student associations along with online articles about blackface to provide the basis for a nuanced examination of the ways that blackface is experienced by Black persons The book investigates the work done by Black students faculty and staff at universities to challenge blackface and the broader campus climate of antiblackness that generates it Theorizing

Race in the Americas Juliet Hooker, 2017-04-03 Four prominent nineteenth and twentieth century U S African American and Latin American intellectuals Frederick Douglass and Domingo F Sarmiento and W E B Du Bois and Jos Vasconcelos have never been read alongside each other Although these thinkers addressed key political and philosophical issues in the Americas political theorists have yet to compare their ideas about race By juxtaposing these thinkers Theorizing Race in the Americas takes up the opportunity to bring African American and Latin American political thought into conversation and in turn maps a genealogy of racial theory throughout the hemisphere Report California. State Board of Pharmacy, 1912

Fugitive Vision Michael A. Chaney, 2008 Analyzing the impact of black abolitionist iconography on early black literature and the formation of black identity Fugitive Vision examines the writings of Frederick Douglass William Wells Brown William and Ellen Craft Harriet Jacobs and the slave potter David Drake Juxtaposing pictorial and literary representations the book argues that the visual offered an alternative to literacy for current and former slaves whose works mobilize forms of illustration that subvert dominant representations of slavery by both apologists and abolitionists From a portrait of Douglass's mother as Ramses to the incised snatches of proverb and prophecy on Dave the Potter's ceramics the book identifies a fugitive vision that reforms our notions of antebellum black identity literature and cultural production

Poor Queer Studies Matt Brim, 2020-03-06 In Poor Queer Studies Matt Brim shifts queer studies away from its familiar sites of elite education toward poor and working class people places and pedagogies Brim shows how queer studies also takes place beyond the halls of flagship institutions in night school after a three hour commute in overflowing classrooms at no name colleges with no research budget without access to decent food with kids in tow in a state of homelessness Drawing on the everyday experiences of teaching and learning queer studies at the College of Staten Island Brim outlines the ways the field has been driven by the material and intellectual resources of those institutions that neglect and rarely serve poor and minority students By exploring poor and working class queer ideas and laying bare the structural and disciplinary mechanisms of inequality that suppress them Brim jumpstarts a queer class knowledge project committed to anti elitist and anti racist education Poor Queer Studies is essential for all of those who care about the state of higher education and building a more equitable academy
