Asia as Method Kuan-Hsing Chen, 2010-04-16 A leading proponent of knowledge exchanges within East Asia and of an international cultural studies insists that those on both sides of the imperial divide must assess the conduct, motives, and consequences of imperialism.

Reimagining Nation and Nationalism in Multicultural East Asia Sungmoon Kim, Hsin-wen Lee, 2017-09-14 Since the late 1980s many East Asian countries have become more multicultural, a process marked by increased democracy and pluralism despite the continuing influence of nationalism which has forced these countries in the region to re-envision their nations. Many such countries have had to reconsider their constitutional makeup, their terms of citizenship, and the ideal of social harmony. This has resulted in new immigration and border control policies and the revisiting of laws regarding labor policies, sociopolitical discrimination, and socioeconomic welfare. This book explores new perspectives, concepts, and theories that are socially relevant, culturally suitable, and normatively attractive in the East Asia context. It not only outlines the particular experiences of nation, citizenship, and nationalism in East Asian countries but also places them within the wider theoretical context. The contributors look at how nationalism under the force of multiculturalism or vice versa affects East Asian societies including China, Japan, Korea, Taiwan, and Hong Kong differently. The key themes are Democracy and equality, Confucianism's relationship with nationalism, cosmopolitanism, and multiculturalism, China's use of its political institutions to initiate and sustain nationalism, the impact of globalization on nationalism in South Korea, Taiwan, and Japan, the role of democracy in reinvigorating indigenous cultures in Taiwan.

Hubert Harrison Jeffrey B. Perry, 2020-12-22 The St. Croix born, Harlem based Hubert Harrison (1883-1927) was a brilliant writer, orator, educator, critic, and activist who combined class consciousness and anti-white supremacist race consciousness into a potent political radicalism. Harrison's ideas profoundly influenced New Negro militants including A. Philip Randolph and Marcus Garvey, and his work is a key link in the two great strands of the Civil Rights Black Liberation struggle: the labor and civil rights movement associated with Randolph and Martin Luther King Jr. and the race and nationalist movement associated with Garvey and Malcolm X. In this second volume of his acclaimed biography, Jeffrey B. Perry traces the final decade of Harrison's life from 1918 to 1927. Perry details Harrison's literary and political activities, foregrounding his efforts against white supremacy and for racial consciousness and unity in struggles for equality and radical social change. The book explores Harrison's role in the militant New Negro Movement and the International Colored Unity League, as well as his prolific work as a writer, educator, and editor of the New Negro and the Negro World. Perry examines Harrison's interactions with major figures such as Garvey, Randolph, J. A. Rogers, Arthur Schomburg, and other prominent
