

DREAMS

BY LANGSTON HUGHES

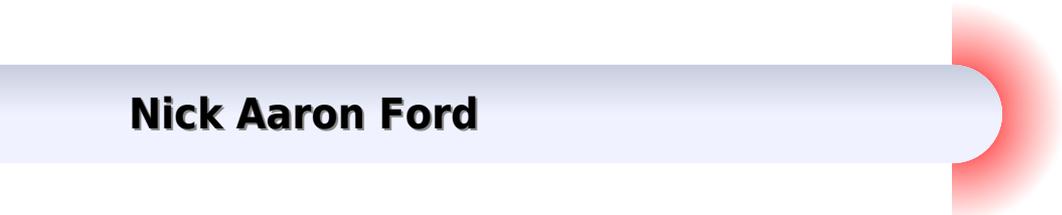

Hold fast to dreams
For if dreams die
Life is a broken-winged bird
That cannot fly

Hold fast to dreams
For when dreams go
Life is a barren field Frozen with snow

Black Labor Chant and Other Poems David Wadsworth Cannon,1974 Hampton Institute Best Books on,1940
Compiled by Mentor A Howe and Roscoe E Lewis Dictionary Catalog of the Negro Collection of the Fisk University Library, Nashville, Tennessee Fisk University. Library,1974 Afro-American Poetry and Drama, 1760-1975 William P. French,Geneviève Fabre,1979 The New Red Negro James Edward Smethurst,1999 The New Red Negro surveys African American poetry from the onset of the Depression to the early days of the Cold War It considers the relationship between the thematic and formal choices of African American poets and organized ideology from the proletarian early 1930s to the neo modernist late 1940s This study examines poetry by writers across the spectrum canonical less well known and virtually unknown The ideology of the Communist Left as particularly expressed through cultural institutions of the literary Left significantly influenced the shape of African American poetry in the 1930s and 40s as well as the content One result of this engagement of African American writers with the organized Left was a pronounced tendency to regard the re created folk or street voice as the authentic voice and subject of African American poetry Furthermore a masculinist rhetoric was crucial to the re creation of this folk voice This unstable yoking of cultural nationalism integrationism and internationalism within a construct of class struggle helped to shape a new relationship of African American poetry to vernacular African American culture This relationship included the representation of African American working class and rural folk life and its cultural products ostensibly from the mass perspective It also included the dissemination of urban forms of African American popular culture often resulting in mixed media high low hybrids Rethinking Social Realism Stacy I. Morgan,2004 The social realist movement with its focus on proletarian themes and its strong ties to New Deal programs and leftist politics has long been considered a depression era phenomenon that ended with the start of World War II This study explores how and why African American writers and visual artists sustained an engagement with the themes and aesthetics of social realism into the early cold war era far longer than a majority of their white counterparts Stacy I Morgan recalls the social realist atmosphere in which certain African American artists and writers were immersed and shows how black social realism served alternately to question the existing order instill race pride and build interracial working class coalitions Morgan discusses among others such figures as Charles White John Wilson Frank Marshall Davis Willard Motley Langston Hughes Sterling Brown Elizabeth Catlett and Hale Woodruff A Classified Catalogue of the Negro Collection in the Collis P. Huntington Library, Hampton Institute Collis P. Huntington Library (Hampton Institute),1971 The Schomburg Center Guide to Black Literature Roger M. Valade,1996 Cont On a general topic such as Discrimination a brief treatment is followed by a discussion of black authors who have written scholarly and popular works on discrimination and how the topic is reflected in creative works Literary terms and genres are defined and explained in the context of black literature Additional features include a chronology of events in black history and black literary history and an essay on the Schomburg Center An index lists titles names and subjects covered in the text Booklist Dictionary Catalog of the Harris Collection of American Poetry and Plays, Brown University Library, Providence, Rhode Island Brown University.
