Blacker The Berry:

The Blacker the Berry Wallace Thurman, 2012-03-06 The first novel to openly address color prejudice among black Americans this moving tale unfolds amid the Harlem Renaissance in an enduringly relevant examination of racial sexual and cultural identity

The Blacker the Berry Wallace Thurman, 2022-02-08 Originally published in 1929 The Blacker the Berry is a novel by American novelist Wallace Henry Thurman 1902 1934 An active writer during the Harlem Renaissance he produced essays worked as an editor and was a publisher of numerous newspapers and journals His best known work The Blacker the Berry represents a detailed exploration of the discrimination within the black community based on skin colour with a higher value being placed on lighter skin A moving tale of the hardships faced by African American post emancipation not to be missed by those interested in black history and literature Contents include If I Had Known by Alice Dunbar Nelson Emma Lou Harlem Alva Rent Party Pyrrhic Victor Read Co Classics is proudly republishing this classic novel now in a brand new edition complete with the introductory poem If I Had Known by Alice Dunbar Nelson The Crisis William Edward Burghardt Du Bois, 1927 Dilution Anxiety and the Black Phallus Margo Natalie Crawford, 2008 After the Black is Beautiful movement of the 1960s black body politics have been overdetermined by both the familiar fetishism of light skin as well as the counter fetishism of dark skin Moving beyond the longstanding focus on the tragic mulatta and making room for the study of the fetishism of both light skinned and dark skinned blackness Margo Natalie Crawford analyzes depictions of colorism in the work of Gertrude Stein Wallace Thurman William Faulkner Black Arts poets James Baldwin Toni Morrison and John Edgar Wideman In Dilution Anxiety and the Black Phallus Crawford adds images of skin color dilution as a type of castration to the field of race and psychoanalysis An undercurrent of light skinned blackness as a type of castration emerges within an ongoing story about the feminizing of light skin and the masculinizing of dark skin Crawford confronts the web of beautified and eroticized brands and scars created by colorism crisscrossing race gender and sexuality The depiction of the horror of these aestheticized brands and scars begins in the white authored and black authored modernist literature examined in the first chapters A call for the end of the ongoing branding emerges with sheer force in the post Black movement novels examined in the final chapters

Race, Work, and Family in the Lives of African Americans Marlese Durr,Shirley Ann Hill,2006 Sadly efforts to end racial segregation and discrimination have clearly not led to racial equality or a colorblind society Rather African Americans have become increasingly class polarized since the civil rights era as the persistent racialization of American society has perpetuated the wage gap between Blacks and Whites leading to increased rates of unemployment and underemployment among African Americans The significant minority of Black families historically headed by single mothers became a statistical majority during the twentieth century and the tension in the gender relations of Black men and women became a more prominent topic of debate This compelling and timely collection examines contemporary family and workforce patterns and how they are continuing to shape the quality of life for African Americans across the United States
