Customs In Conflict The Anthropology Of A Changing World:

Customs in Conflict Frank E. Manning, Jean-Marc Philibert, 1990 This collection designed as a textbook for courses in cultural anthropology combines a wide range of articles on both traditional and modern Western societies Drawing on various approaches from American symbolic anthropology to British social anthropology and cultural Marxism the book explores many of the most important issues in anthropology today such as the links between symbolism and power and the question of social and cultural reproduction Back cover Three Plays of Maureen Hunter Hunter, Maureen, 2003 Book is clean and tight No writing in text Like New Farmers in a Changing World United States. Department of Agriculture, 1940 This book tries to deal with these problems as the previous Yearbooks dealt with some of the great problems in the natural sciences to sum up needs methods results and at the same time indicate shortcomings Restoration & Management Notes, 1998 Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1991 Bowker Editorial Staff, 1991-09 Globalization and Culture Change in the Pacific Islands Victoria S. Lockwood, 2004 Offering insight into the major changes that are taking place in the context of increasing globalization in Pacific Island societies the authors seek to ground globalization in concrete real life cases of communities that are dealing with specific processes of globalization and formulating their own responses in their own cultural terms The case studies presented reflect the many different cultural contexts of island societies as they deal with global politics nation states and ethnic conflict global economic integration and transnationalism evolving identities and cultural representations changes in patterns of social and community relations and increasing integration into global religions For anyone interested in the effects of globalization on the peoples and cultures of the Pacific The Changing World of Christianity Dyron B. Daugherty, 2010 Christianity has changed Formerly known as the religion of Europe and North America it is now a religion of the Global South Asia Africa and Latin America However Christianity has never been merely a Western phenomenon it has always been a borderless religion Indeed in six of the world's eight cultural blocks Christianity is the largest faith With convenient maps helpful statistics and concise histories of each of the world's major cultural blocks The Changing World of Christianity is a dynamic guide for understanding Christianity's new ethos From Ireland to Papua New Guinea Argentina to China South Africa to Russia this book provides a clear and encyclopedic look at Christianity the world's largest and most global religion Living Heritage in a Changing World Xuanlin Liu, 2025-09-19 The book explores living heritage through nomadic heritage in Inner Mongolia China Using a critical heritage approach it examines how heritage is understood and enacted within changing communities and shifting lifestyles revealing the dynamic nature of nomadic cultural heritage The book critically re-examines nomadic heritage capturing socio-cultural transformations and engaging in an ontological inquiry into living heritage By bridging theory and practice as well as tangible and intangible heritage it redefines heritage's intrinsic logic in a changing world Focusing on the ger a dwelling central to Mongolian nomadic life it analyses the continuity and transformation of ger practices Using ethnographic research it highlights the human material environment dynamic and the agency of multiple stakeholders in shaping heritage This work is a key contribution to living heritage and nomadic heritage studies offering valuable insights for scholars professionals and those interested in nomadic culture Hunter-gatherers in a Changing World Victoria Reyes-García,Aili Pyhälä,2016-11-15 This book compiles a collection of case studies analysing drivers of and responses to change amongst contemporary hunter gatherers Contemporary hunter gatherers livelihoods are examined from perspectives ranging from historical legacy to environmental change and from changes in national economic political and legal systems to more broad scale and universal notions of globalization and acculturation Far from the commonly held romantic view that hunter gatherers continue to exist as isolated populations living a traditional lifestyle in harmony with the environment contemporary hunter gatherers like many rural communities around the world face a number of relatively new ecological and social challenges to which they are pressed to adapt Contemporary hunter gatherer societies are increasingly and rapidly being affected by Global Changes related both to biophysical Earth systems i e changes in climate biodiversity and natural resources and water availability and to social systems i e demographic transitions sedentarisation integration into the market economy and all the socio cultural change that these and other factors trigger Chapter 10 of this book is open access under a CC BY 4 0 license

International Books in Print ,1997 Changing Nomads in a Changing World Joseph Ginat,1998-01-01 Discusses how pastoralists are coping and changing as the societies they inhabit change at an unprecedented pace Nation Making Robert John Foster,1995 Examines the process of nation making in Fiji Papua New Guinea the Solomon Islands and Vanuatu Canadiana ,1991 Pilipinas ,1997 Social Change in Melanesia Paul Sillitoe,2000-04-13 This book first published in 2000 is a companion volume to An Introduction to the Anthropology of Melanesia 1998 It gives a clear and absorbing account of social change in Melanesia since the arrival of Europeans covering the history of the colonial period and the new postcolonial states Paul Sillitoe deals with economic and technological change labour migration and urbanisation and formation of the modern state but he also describes the sometimes violent reactions to these dramatic transformations in the form of cargo cults secession movements and insurrections against multinational companies He discusses development projects but brings out associated policy dilemmas reviews developments that threaten the environment and implications for local identity such as romanticises primitive culture This fascinating account of social change in the pacific is addressed to students with little or no background in the region s history and development Ta'n Teliktamsitasit (Ways of Believing) Angela Robinson,2004 Volume 3 of the Canadian Ethnography series emphasizes the role of religion as it pertains to constructing Mi kmaw identity primarily because religious and spiritual views help shape subjectivity and the social environment Within Mi kmaw society and culture specific religious orientations and respective ideologies and expressions both shape and are shaped by personal and social identities The reciprocal nature of this relationship between religious affiliation s and individual and collective identities is evident in the varied perceptions of culture spirituality and religion
