Dachau Reality And Myth:

Dachau John Cobden, 1994      Dachau John Cobden, 1991      Three Perspectives: Jewish, Christian, and Muslim Steven H. Propp, 2009-12-30 You're Jewish aren't you This blunt question is the way that college freshman Richard Cohn is introduced to an outspoken fellow student named Dov Epstein who calls himself a Messianic Jew and believes that God has a special purpose for the Jewish people in these Last Days Raised by secular Jewish parents Richard is completely oblivious to his own Jewish background until this ongoing dialogue forces him to confront his own heritage The two young men vigorously argue with each other over the interpretation of the Hebrew Bible particularly its reputed predictions of a Messiah Christian doctrines such as the Trinity and most significantly about the identity and significance of Jesus of Nazareth The rigorous process of self examination this initiates leads Richard to embrace his Jewish identity even as he vehemently denies the same for Dov The two ultimately become fast friends but as they progress from an academic environment to the professional world they are challenged by racist statements made by prominent national figures anti Semitic doctrines such as Christian Identity which teaches that white Anglo Saxons are the true Israel and also purported scholars who deny the reality of the Holocaust itself Circumstances in life connect them with a young Iranian migr named Jahangir Khatami whose Muslim beliefs conflict strongly with their own Yet when a violent incident brings the three of them together they are forced to reexamine not just their differences but their similarities While they clash over the ideals of Zionism and its ramifications in the modern State of Israel they are united in their horror over the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 Join a diverse cast of characters some of whom appeared in the authors earlier book Beyond Heaven and Earth in a probing exploration that may help you reconsider just what it means to be Jewish Christian or Muslim in the modern world      The Journal of Historical Review, 2001      Dachau Marcus J. Smith, 2012-02-01 Marcus Smith was the sole medical officer attached to a small displaced person DP team that was sent to the Dachau concentration camp the day after it was liberated by Allied troops and several days before the shocking conditions of the camp were publicized throughout the world Several years after his experience at Dachau believing that we must never forget what happened Smith unearthed his notes and the daily letters he wrote to his wife and used them as source materials for Dachau The Harrowing of Hell From the perspective of a young physician Smith describes his experiences shedding light on the immense difficulties and complexities of the large scale tasks the small DP team completed against great odds to combat epidemic diseases and starvation and repatriate the former prisoners Smith also describes some of the people the team tried to help men women and children from all walks of life of many nationalities and religions Smith tells his moving story objectively with simplicity and grace While this book is the story of man s inhumanity to man it is more than an account of Nazi persecution It is about how Smith whose previous experience had not prepared him for the immense horror of what he encountered at Dachau quickly became a public health expert how a small team improvised relief and combated a typhus epidemic and how the soldiers of different countries had to get along with each other while dealing with the prejudices of some of the displaced people they were trying to help Dachau contains six drawings by noted European artist Zoran Music who was arrested by the Gestapo in Venice in 1944 and incarcerated at Dachau The drawings were given to Smith when he left Dachau Hitler: Legend, Myth & Reality Werner Maser,1973

Building the East German Myth Alan L. Nothnagle, Alan Lloyd Nothnagle, 2026-02-16 Ten years after the fall of the Berlin Wall the political and economic structures of the former German Democratic Republic are largely understood yet many questions remain What actually motivated the East Germans themselves What common goals and values kept GDR society going and until its unexpected collapse in 1989 seemed to make it into a relative success story Building the East German Myth examines the East German communist party's propagandistic treatment of German high culture antifascism German Soviet friendship and the German nationalist tradition In this pathbreaking study Alan Nothnagle argues that the party's mass events and indoctrination campaigns were not mere propaganda but rather an ingenious program of mythbuilding by which young people were instilled with a dynamic and nearly inescapable mythology Using a wealth of previously unexplored sources Nothnagle shows this mythology was as essential to the GDR's existence as the Wall of the Soviet occupation and as its leaders discovered in 1989 the GDR could not survive without it Alongside the economic and human costs this book demonstrates the loss of honesty subtlety and a sense of proportion may represent the most devastating legacy of the East German experience Written to appeal to both specialists and non specialists Building the East German Myth will prove essential reading for those interested in German and European history communism political propaganda and Cold War culture

The Nazi Myth Paul Tabori, 1939 Toward the Final Solution George L. Mosse, 2020-09-08 Originally published in 1978 Toward the Final Solution was one of the first in depth studies of the evolution of racism in Europe from the Age of Enlightenment through the Holocaust and Hitler's Final Solution George L. Mosse details how antisemitism and dangerous prejudices have long existed in the European cultural tradition revealing an appalling and complex history With the global renewal of extreme right wing nationalism this instrumental work remains as important as ever for understanding how bigotry impacts political cultural and intellectual life This edition of Mosse's classic book includes a new critical introduction by Christopher R. Browning author of Ordinary Men Reserve Police Battalion 101 and the Final Solution in Poland

Controversial Concordats Frank J. Coppa, 1999 Controversial Concordats offers an engaging survey of the relationship of the Roman Catholic Church with three dictatorial figures in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Napoleon Mussolini and Hitler

Bulletin of Bibliography, 1996 The Hudson Review Frederick Morgan, 1953 Men, Power, and Myths Allan Guggenbühl, 1997 In this book Jungian analyst Allan Guggenbühl develops a completely new psychological theory about men His idea is that traditional psychology has failed to tackle the main objectives that motivate men in their private and public lives When men dedicate themselves to work fight for social causes start families or get crazy over sports they are enacting concealed mythic patterns patterns that lie at the very heart of our culture Men have a natural affinity for myth and mythmaking which Guggenbuhl maintains results in grandiose aspirations and what often appears to be the purest sort of self indulgence At the same time such thinking also helps to explain a seeming helplessness that men have in dealing with their own feelings Once all of this is understood Guggenbuhl maintains a true equality in relationships based on the differences between the sexes can also be attained Men can thereby achieve a greater understanding and more realistic appreciation of their strengths and weaknesses Toward the Final Solution George Lachmann Mosse,1985 This book comprises units 11 12 of the Open University s course Anti Judaism and Antisemitism Myth in Modern Africa Rhodes-Livingstone Institute. Conference,1960 Mythology's Last Gods William Harwood,1992 A textual analysis of the Bible leading to a conclusion of errancy and close relation to earlier myth Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Journeys of Remembrance Kathryn N. Jones,2007 The Second World War was a common experience of cultural and historical rupture for many European countries but studies of this period and its after images often remain locked in national frameworks Jones comparative study of national memory cultures argues for a more nuanced view of responses to shared issues of remembrance Focusing on the 1960s and 1970s two decades of great change and debate in French and German discourses of memory it investigates literary representations of the Second World War and in particular the Holocaust from France and both Germanies The study encompasses thirteen works representing a variety of genres and divergent perspectives and authors include Jorge Semprun Peter Weiss Georges Perec and Bernhard Vesper Addressing the underlying theme of travel as a means of exploring the past it contrasts the journeys made by deportees and post war visitors to the camps with the use of the literary device Foreign Policy Analysis Feliks Gross,1954 Instauration ,1978 Auschwitz Wilhelm Stäglich,1990
