Dada Market An Anthology Of Poetry:

The Dada Market, 1993 Dada's overriding concern was liberty social moral artistic and intellectual While rebelling against bourgeois values and all forms of authority the Dadaists venerated scandalous behavior spontaneity and a general joie de vivre Their adherents questioned the basic postulates of rationalism and humanism as few had done before The Written Poem Rosemary Huisman, 1998-01-01 This text discusses the visual and graphic conventions in contemporary poetry in English It defines contemporary poetry and its historical construction as a seen object and uses literary and social theory of the 1990s to facilitate the study In examining how a poem is recognized the interpretive conventions for reading it and how the spacial arrangement on the page is meaningful for contemporary poetry the text takes examples from individual poems There is also a focus on changes in manuscript conventions from Old to Middle English poetry and the change from a social to a personal understanding of poetic meaning from the late 18th through the 19th century The absurd in literature Neil Cornwell, 2013-07-19 Neil Cornwell's study while endeavouring to present an historical survey of absurdist literature and its forbears does not aspire to being an exhaustive history of absurdism Rather it pauses on certain historical moments artistic movements literary figures and selected works before moving on to discuss four key writers Daniil Kharms Franz Kafka Samuel Beckett and Flann O'Brien The absurd in literature will be of compelling interest to a considerable range of students of comparative European including Russian and Central European and English literatures British Isles and American as well as those more concerned with theatre studies the avant garde and the history of ideas including humour theory It should also have a wide appeal to the enthusiastic general reader Framed! Lucy Bolton, 2007 Broaching the notion of the frame from a variety of analytic perspectives and employing a range of approaches this collection of articles engages with contemporary debates on text and image relations literary reception and translation narratology and cinematographic technique The various contributions to this collection provide new readings in their respective fields and share a common concern with exploring the productive and problematic notion of the frame and of framing in a wide variety of cultural media in French Studies This interdisciplinary analysis of literary and theoretical texts visual art and film allows for fruitful connections to be made at the level of analysis of themes and of methodology It thus provides material that is of interest both to specialists in these fields and also to those seeking a more general introduction to each area This collection of articles is selected from the proceedings of the Framed in French Studies workshop held at the Institut Francais in London in February 2006 Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation 1929-2016 Robin Healey, 2019-03-07 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey's Italian Literature before
