It brings together scholars from girls studies and children's literature fields that have traditionally conducted their research separately, and the collaboration showcases the breadth and complexity of girl-related studies. Contributors from disciplines such as sociology, literature, education, and gender studies combine these disciplinary approaches in novel ways, with insights from international studies, postcolonial studies, game studies, and other fields. Several of the authors engage in activist and policy development work around girls who experience poverty and marginalization. Each essay is concerned in one way or another with the politics of girlhood as they manifest in national and cultural contexts, in the everyday practices of girls, and in textual ideologies and agendas. In contemporary Western societies, girls and girlhood function to some degree as markers of cultural reproduction and change. The essays in this book proceed from the assumption that girls are active participants in the production of texts and cultural forms; they offer accounts of the diversity of girls' experience and the complex significances of texts by for and about girls. Artist's & Photographer's Market Lynne Lapin, Kirk Polking, Paula Arnett Sandhage, 1974 Sticker Search: Ballet School Margot Channing, 2025-12 Decorate each colourful and detailed scene of ballet school life with over 350 fantastic stickers.
