Balún-Canán Rosario Castellanos,1970 Balun Canan ,1957 General from the Jungle B. Traven,2020-11-24
Readers who ignore the genius of B Traven do so at their peril The New York Times B Traven s Jungle Novels comprises six books written during the 1930s that observe the poor conditions of the Mexican Indians living in the southern state of Chiapas whose forced work under exploitative conditions and labor camps foment rebellion and start the beginnings of the Mexican Revolution This last installment of Traven s legendary Jungle novels sees the completion of Ivan R Dee s fictional multi volume retelling of the Mexican Revolution From the art of guerilla warfare to the true to life story of the great general Juan M ndez Traven s masterful storytelling skills are on full display The Jungle Novels constitute one of the richest portraits of revolution in all literature University Review Third World Women's Literatures Barbara Fister,1995-09-14 This reference volume serves as a companion to Third World women s literatures in English and in English translation by presenting entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes What plays have been written by women in the developing world What books have been written by Sri Lankan or Brazilian women Which works address themes of feminism or exile or politics in the Third World These are the types of questions that can now be answered through Fister s companion to Third World women s literatures in English and English translation Organized alphabetically this reference volume presents entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes By providing information about and leads to works by and about Third World women an important and largely marginalized literature Fister has created a unique reference tool that will help teachers scholars and librarians both public and academic expand their definitions of the literary making the voices of Third World women available in the same format in which many companions to Western literature do An important book for all public and college level libraries
De-Colonizing the Subject Sidonie Smith,Julia Watson,1992-01-01 An International Glossary of Place Name Elements Joel F. Mann,2005-06-27 Place name elements from over 300 languages are arranged alphabetically followed by the name of the language or language group of origin the meaning in English and in many cases the word s usage in an actual place name
Women's Voice in Latin American Literature Naomi Lindstrom,1989 A detailed study of Latin American women authors that not only express women s concerns but also are equally adept at translating those concerns into fictional expression
Literary Onomastics Studies ,1984 Cultures ,1977 Latin America Stephen Clissold,1966 Ante ,1967
Mexico James Tickell,1993 March to Caobaland B. Traven,1986 Mariama Bâ, Rigoberta Menchú, and Postcolonial Feminism Laura Charlotte Kempen,2001 This book investigates the convergence of feminist literary projects in the Latin American and West African contexts and demonstrates how the authors examined here employ similar writing strategies to re constitute feminine subjects Their writing strives to rid literature and thus international psyches of reductive stereotypes of subaltern women while projecting more complex active female images In portraying the horrific victimization that they and their people have experienced these writers claim a position of authorial power and wield their tragedies along with their words as a weapon against imperial patriarchal and neocolonial tyranny Despite their vast socioeconomic and cultural differences these women share much common ground where they cultivate feminine words of deliverance

RMCLAS Review ,1986 El Corno emplumado Sergio Mondragón,Margaret Randall,1974 Master's Theses Directories ,2004 Education arts and social sciences natural and technical sciences in the United States and Canada

March to the Monteria B. Traven,1994 In the third of his six Jungle Novels set in the great mahogany plantations of southern Mexico in the years before the revolution Traven traces the beginnings of consciousness which led to rebellion by the Indians who worked in debt slavery Baedeker's Mexico Karl Anton von Bleyleben,Karl Baedeker (Firm),1982
