Bangor Dyslexia Teaching System:

The Bangor Dyslexia Teaching System Elaine Miles,1998 For this third edition the book has been revised and updated to take account of recent research particularly that relating to the developmental stages by which children normally acquire literacy The Bangor Dyslexia Teaching System Elaine Miles,Kenneth D. Gadow,1992-12 Dyslexia Gavin Reid,2016-01-21 Newly updated Gavin Reid s best selling handbook remains an essential resource for those helping dyslexic individuals of all ages from preschoolers to adults in the workplace Combines theoretical explanations the latest research and practical solutions with a focus on inclusion and meeting the individual s needs New and expanded coverage includes multilingualism the use of technology co existing conditions such as dyspraxia dyscalculia and ADHD and positive dyslexia Assembles the latest policies and best practices for dyslexia from around the world and makes current debates regarding education and literacy accessible to trainees and practitioners

Teaching Languages to Students with Specific Learning Differences Judit Kormos,Anne Margaret Smith,2012-01-01 This book is intended to help language teachers to work effectively and successfully with students who have specific learning difficulties SpLD such as dyslexia The book takes an inclusive and practical approach to language teaching and encourages teachers to consider the effects that SpLD could have on a language learner It suggests strategies that can be implemented to enable learners to succeed both in the classroom and in formal assessment Publisher Spelling Diane Montgomery,1997-03-20 Designed for teachers wanting to know what to do to help pupils with spelling difficulties this book combines practical advice with theory research and accounts of the author s own experience The author looks at how spelling skills develop in both young children and older pupils

Dyslexia Michael Thomson,E. J. Watkins,Bill Watkins,1998 This practical handbook provides teachers with the skills techniques and structure to help children with specific learning difficulties achieve success The second edition takes account of the 1993 Education Act as well as recent research

Dyslexia Trevor Payne,Elizabeth Turner,1999 This text is intended to be a handy practical guide to the educational difficulties encountered by children experiencing specific learning difficulties dyslexia It is aimed at parents of dyslexic children and non specialist teachers who have these children in their classes

Special Teaching for Special Children Ann Lewis,Brahm Norwich,2004-11-16 I recommend this book as an important contribution to the debate on pedagogy in special education It is largely well written and informative and rich with ideas and opinions Educational Review What if anything is special about teaching children with special or exceptional learning needs This book addresses this question looking at pupils special learning needs including low attainment learning difficulties language difficulties emotional and behavioural problems and sensory needs Some special needs groups for example dyslexia have argued strongly for the need for particular specialist approaches In contrast many proponents of inclusion have argued that good teaching is good teaching for all and that all children benefit from similar approaches Both positions fail to scrutinise this issue rigorously and coherently and it is this aspect which distinguishes this book Leading researchers in each special needs field defend and critique a conceptual analysis of teaching strategies used with particular learner groups with special educational needs Summaries by the editors after each chapter link pedagogic strategies knowledge and curriculum to key points from the chapter and pave the way for discussion This book is indispensable reading for students policy makers researchers and professionals in the field of special educational needs and inclusion Shortlisted for the TES NASEN Book Awards 2005 Dyslexia Michael E. Thomson,1990 Dyslexia Angela Fawcett,2001 This is the 2001 volume in the series emanating from successive International Conferences organised by the British Dyslexia Association Considerable progress has been made in identifying the causes of dyslexia and providing intervention to break into the cycle of failure This selection of papers from the 5th International Conference of the British Dyslexia Association in 2001 brings together perspectives on aspects of theory and practice A key feature is the inclusion of a series of chapters on good practice from infancy to adulthood in addition to themes on biological bases cognitive processes and intervention The research reported covers all the major theories of dyslexia and reflects state of the art knowledge in developing areas such as genetics and infancy research Authors include not only keynote speakers Maryanne Wolf Joe Torgesen and John Stein but also many other major international players A particular highlight is the call from Rod Nicolson to consider targets for dyslexia research for the next decade in terms of unity of purpose Dyslexia Thomas Richard Miles,Elaine Miles,1990 Provides an overview of issues relating to dyslexia The book traces the history of dyslexia examines the contribution of various disciplines reviews current research outlines teaching methods and programmes and discusses the continuing disputes about this subject

Dyslexia British Dyslexia Association. International Conference,1991 Conference Meeting the challenge Overcoming Dyslexia Hilary Broomfield,Margaret Combley,2003-04-11 This second edition has benefited from the experience of teachers and pupils using the first edition in the classroom The authors have created links between multisensory learning and the National Literacy Strategy applying these to the National Literacy Framework and the Literacy Hour Dyslexia James Doyle,1996 This book is written for concerned parents and teachers It describes all the basics needed for an insight into dyslexia and covers description assessment diagnosis parental rights legislation and the statutory Statementing process This second edition has been fully revised expanded and updated to incorporate latest research findings and modern practices the Green Paper Meeting Special Educational Needs the DFES National Literacy Strategy the new 2002 Code of Practice Special Educational Needs together with the latest recommendations of professional bodies and supportive agencies The book is descriptive and informative Its aim is to assist enable and support involved adults in their efforts best to meet the specialized needs of dyslexic children Any controversial aspect of the subject is described objectively and impartially both sides of the case being presented without bias Dyslexia is described against the general background of the normal teaching and learning of reading in the mainstream education system The Second Edition generously illustrated throughout with drawings diagrams tables flowcharts and graphs contains an additional chapter more appendices and an expanded glossary

Dyslexia, Speech and Language Margaret J. Snowling, Joy Stackhouse, 1996 Psychological Assessment of Dyslexia
Martin Turner, 1997-02-18 This book provides a refreshingly rational guide to the many issues involved in psychological assessment taking dyslexia to be a remedial cognitive deficit The author reviews the major tests in use for children and adults while keeping the scientific purpose for their use firmly in view Written primarily for assessment professionals the book will appeal to parents and specialist teachers and all those with an interest in fair and objective methods for dealing with dyslexia

Mutism Yvan Lebrun, 1990 This monograph provides an examination of both functional and organic causes and types of mutism Written in an informative style appropriate for readers with varying levels of knowledge and experience the book will appeal to student and practitioner alike Dr Lebrun's scholarship and fluency in several languages enable him to avoid parochial positions and limitations of national boundaries and monolingualism Mutism will provide instructive reading for speech therapist pathologists paediatricians neurologists and those involved in special education

Handbook of Spelling Gordon D. A. Brown, Nick C. Ellis, 1994-11 Brings together international interdisciplinary research on spelling performance problems from cognitive and developmental psychology linguistics psycholinguistics neuropsychology computational approaches connectionism and educational research Covers topics such as the diversity and evolution of writing systems analyses of spelling errors and latencies computational models of spelling developmental stages and causal transitions abnormal spelling processes in developmental and acquired dyslexia deafness hyperlexia and other syndromes and much more

Children with Language Disorders Janet Lees, Shelagh Urwin, 1991 This is a practical book written from a clinical viewpoint It aims to show how speech therapists working individually or in multidisciplinary teams treat language impaired children It discusses the difficulties of the children and their needs developing an holistic view of the child her his family environment and progress with the language Throughout the book the text includes description of 30 cases of children with language disorders and they seek to illustrate the points made by drawing examples of actual clinical practice
