This beautifully illustrated volume tells the story of Cubism through twenty two essays that explore the most significant private holding of Cubist art in the world today the Leonard A Lauder Collection now a promised gift to The Metropolitan Museum of Art The eighty works featured in this volume by Georges Braque Juan Gris Fernand L ger and Pablo Picasso are among the most important and visually arresting in the movement s history These masterpieces critical to the development of Cubism include such groundbreaking paintings as Braque s Trees at L Estaque considered one of the very first Cubist pictures Picasso s Still Life with Fan L Ind pendant one of the first to introduce typography Gris s noirish uncanny The Man at the Caf one of his most celebrated collages and L ger s uniquely ambitious Composition The Typographer Written by renowned experts on this subject the essays trace the evolution of Cubism from its origins in the still lifes portraits and collages of Braque and Picasso through the precisely delineated compositions by Gris that prefigure the Synthetic Cubism of the war years to L ger s distinctive intersections of spherical cylindrical and cubic forms that evoke the syncopated rhythms of modern life Also included are a fascinating interview in which Leonard Lauder discusses his approach to collecting an investigative essay on the information gleaned from the backs of the works themselves and an authoritative catalogue that further establishes the lives of these magnificent objects A publication to place alongside the great histories of Modernism this comprehensive book will stand as the resource for understanding Cubism for many years to come Policy Matters Clive Robertson, 2006 In this book Clive Robertson examines the subject of arts administration through the three major topics of artist run culture as movement and apparatus custody battles with at the Canada Council and Carings for art and culture

Minneapolis Institute of Arts July 3 Sept 7 1969 The National Gallery of Canada Douglas Ord, 2003 In this first critical history of the National Gallery of Canada Douglas Ord explores how in the gallery s development art has consistently been linked to notions of religious truth national spirit and hallowed atmosphere culminating in Moshe Safdie s design for the institution s current building Integrating accounts of political intrigue and public controversy with philosophy art theory and architectural analysis Ord provides vivid accounts of successive directors struggles to obtain a permanent home for the nation s art Ord looks at the gallery s historical and intellectual context from 1910 when Eric Brown became the gallery s founding director through Jean Sutherland Boggs to Shirley Thomson shedding light on its acquisitions government policy towards the arts and the public's deep rooted suspicion of avant garde art In showing how Canadian art came to be housed in a building whose architectural and ideological sources include Gothic cathedrals Islamic mosques Egyptian temples St Peter's Basilica and the squared stone facades of the Holy City of Jerusalem The National Gallery of Canada insightfully explores the relationship of Canada's art and its National Gallery to the project of the Canadian nation state
