Conversation Of Journalism Communication Community And News:

The Conversation of Journalism Rob Anderson, Robert Dardenne, George Killenberg, 1994-05-30 Draws on media's past strengths to define a more responsive role for journalism's future This work covers many current trends minority voices providing interactive community forums reconciling informational and entertainment functions understanding bias and creating public opinion

Media, Profit, and Politics Joe Harper, Thom Yantek, 2003 A compilation of essays and commentary delivered at the second annual Kent State University Symposium on Democracy this work recognizes and considers the differences that arise when the competitive forces of commerce clash with the demand for the open availability of information in a democratic society The conflicting roles of advocate initiator and objective reporter for journalists who cover community politics the role of the news media in forming public attitudes toward things political and their role in affecting voter nonparticipation the role of financial considerations in the news media's attempt to provide citizens with needed news and perspective on political affairs and particularly the role of the conglomeration of ownership of news media organizations are a few of the topics discussed in this volume

Getting the Whole Story Cheryl K. Gibbs, Tom Warhover, 2002-08-08 A textbook for a journalism course introducing the process of reporting The topics include interviewing observation community as context visual elements and covering a beat Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Public Affairs Reporting Now George Killenberg, 2012-07-26 Reporting Today's Most Needed News

Communication Yearbook 21 Michael Roloff, 2012-03-22 Communication Yearbook 21 reflects the rich diversity of the field of communication both in terms of content areas and methods The topics of the eleven reviews range from interpersonal influence to media practices and effects The authors address issues such as organizational democracy and change intercultural negotiation journalism and broadcasting practices the management of crisis and the relationship between media and the presidency The volume was originally published in 1998 In addressing these issues narratives historical accounts and meta-analytic techniques are employed

Communitarian Journalism Ralph Barney, Jay Black, 1996 One of the sharpest recent debates over media ethics has centered around what has been variously called public or civic or communitarian journalism This special issue examines some of the underlying concerns of communitarian journalism including the relationships between individual and community and the connecting role of journalism negative vs positive freedoms constitutional vs marketplace mandates universal vs situational professional values individual vs corporate vs democratic loyalties commitment and compassion vs detachment and professional distance and talking to vs talking with Authors of these essays include some of the best known practitioners and critics of contemporary journalism They wrote these papers as part of a 2 year lecture series funded by the Ethics and Excellence in Journalism Foundation and hosted by the University of South Florida St Petersburg

Critical Conversations Wendy N. Wyatt, 2007 This volume provides work toward developing a theory of criticism Beginning from the perspective that a theory of press criticism should be grounded in a theory of the press itself the book builds a foundation for the press that rests on the ideals of a discursive democracy The discursive paradigm is then used to develop a model for criticism that makes the relationship between the critics and the press analogous to the one that occurs between the citizenry and state in a discursive democracy Annual Convention Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication, Annual Convention,1996 Community Conversations Paul Born,2012-06-15 Communities around the world are entering a new era of community building Whether improving economic conditions and reducing poverty re energizing citizens and social programs reducing crime or revitalizing a troubled neighborhood they are engaging people from all sectors as never before to work together as equals to improve their quality of life At the heart of this engagement are community conversations in which common goals are embraced by a diverse array of people with different backgrounds and needs and influencers are drawn from multiple sectors including community organizations the various levels of government and businesses big and small Full of informative and inspiring examples of collaboration Community Conversations captures the essence of creating such conversations and offers ten practical techniques to host conversations in your community Communication Ethics: Between Cosmopolitanism and Provinciality Kathleen Glenister Roberts,Ronald C. Arnett,2008 This volume occasions a dialogue between major authors in the field who engage in a conversation on cosmopolitanism and provinciality from a communication ethics perspective There is no consensus on what constitutes communication ethics cosmopolitanism or provinciality the task is more modest and diverse and began with contributors being asked what the bias of their work suggests or offers for understanding the theme Communication Ethics Between Cosmopolitanism and Provinciality Rather than responding authoritatively each essay acknowledges the contributor s own work This book offers no answers but invites a conversation that is more akin to a beginning a joining an admission that there is more than me us or my kind of people theory or wisdom The book will be an excellent resource for instructors and for upper level undergraduate and graduate courses in communication The Challenge of Civic Journalism Sherrie Lea Wilson,2001 American Journalism ,1995 International Journal of Communication ,2007 Javnost ,1996 Choice ,2006 The Journal of International Communication ,1995 Ebenezer Soola Conference on Communication ,2007 Gender, Politics and Communication Annabelle Sreberny,Liesbet van Zoonen,2000 This text focuses specifically on three interrelated sets of questions with respect to gender politics and communication How do serious and popular media alike represent male and female politicians how do they frame their politics and how can these representations and frames be explained What is the role of mainstream and movement media for the women s movement how are feminist issues covered in the media and what kinds of media related activities do women s movements undertake How are the social and political concerns of ordinary women voiced in the media in talkshows in particular and how does this different popular platform interact with mainstream and feminist politics Writing for the Mass Media James Glen Stovall,2002 Through five editions Writing for the Mass Media remains one of the most clear and efficient introductions to media writing This successful book offers a simple organization clear writing abundant exercises and precise examples that give readers the information and opportunity to develop their skills as professional writers Using a workbook style format it introduces and explains the major forms of media writing inverted pyramid for print and Web dramatic writing for broadcast copy platforms for advertising and the various writing structures required for public relations and covers all major areas of media including the World Wide Web For writers interested in media writing Bibliographic Index ,1997
