The Fiction of the I Nicholas J. Meyerhofer, 1999 An introduction to eight contemporary Austrian writers who have achieved critical acclaim and who to a greater or lesser degree write autobiographical prose Authors discussed are Barbara Frischmuth Peter Handke Peter Henisch Edgar Hilsenrath Elfriede Jelinek Peter Rosei Gerhard Roth and Fred Wander

Ruthless and Other Writings Peter Rosei, 2003 Elfriede Jelinek Jorun B. Johns, Katherine Arens, 1994 The essays collected here demonstrate the range and significance of this major literary voice addressing Jelinek as a master of modernist prose of postmodern critiques of literary genres of stage and screen and of feminist and antifascist criticism Jelinek's oeuvre encompasses reworkings of older literary genres reminiscent of Joyce Carol Oates refashioned as contemporary criticism of domestic violence pornography oppression of women or the continuance of the fascist legacy in the everyday world of contemporary Austria and Germany Her experiments on the stage and screen are as eerily evocative as the works of Robert Wilson yet deliver trenchant political and social critiques as their shared modernist and postmodern agendas would require

Modern Austrian Literature, 2003 Includes the index to the Journal of the International Arthur Schnitzler Research Association 1961-67 A Companion to Michael Haneke Roy Grundmann, 2010-04-26 A Companion to Michael Haneke With a new preface addressing the Academy award winning film Amour this new in paper edition has established itself as the definitive collection on Michael Haneke from his early work in television and theater through his prodigious cinematic output to his 2009 triumph at Cannes A Companion to Michael Haneke brings together essays by leading film scholars as well as interviews with the director himself to probe the provocative and controversial themes that have formed the nucleus of Haneke's work intergenerational dysfunction and social alienation colonialism and citizenship surveillance and pornography mass culture and media violence The volume also offers a critical examination of the auteur's oeuvre including Three Paths to the Lake, Lemmings, Benny's Video, The Piano Teacher, Catch, Funny Games and the 2009 Palme d'Or winner The White Ribbon

Chasing After the Wind Barbara Frischmuth, 1996 Barbara Frischmuth among the most widely recognised and respected Austrian writers today is recognised not only for her descriptive skill but also for being a moderate feminist In these four short tales she presents realistic portraits of women caught up in relationships determined largely by social conventions internalised roles and sometimes just plain bad luck Taking her title from Ecclesiastes All is vanity and a chasing after the wind she presents psychologically sound studies of women protagonists futile efforts to break out of the dead end situations in which they have been trapped

The Wild Woman and Other Plays Felix Mitterer, 1995 This second volume of Felix Mitterer's plays in English translation offers further evidence of this dramatist's powerful artistry A mythological Wild Woman changes the lives of five wood cutters exposing their loneliness and desperation Home reiterates the dictum that you can't go home again especially where prejudice brutality and hatred reside An historical drama based on actual court records Children of the Devil depicts institutional superstition and cruelty as perpetuated upon the most vulnerable members of society its children One Everyman is a modern version of the traditional medieval morality play complete with a Devil from Wall Street while the Biblical analogy Abraham concerns the scourge of AIDS but even more the love between a father and his son The Austrian playwright Felix Mitterer born in 1948 in the Tyrol is one of today's leading European dramatists His two four part television series Piefke Saga and Verkaufte Heimat were seen by millions of viewers in the German speaking countries

The Cumulative Book Index, 1996 A world list of books in the English language

The Final Plays Arthur Schnitzler, 1996 This second volume of Austrian Folk Plays gives further evidence of the popularity of this form among contemporary writers In the late nineteenth century the folk play had fallen into disrepute as trivial literature but in the 1920 it began to be restored to prominence and after World War II writers rediscovered the form and believed that it was ideally suited to treat contemporary social problems

Felix Mitterer Nicholas J. Meyerhofer, Karl Eugene Webb, 1995 During the last decade the contemporary author Felix Mitterer has grown steadily in both critical and popular acclaim emerging as one of the most popular playwrights in German speaking Europe today His dramas are performed regularly on all of the major stages in Germany and Austria and his television plays and series attract large audiences In recent years Mitterer's works have also begun to attract serious interest abroad they have been translated into twelve different languages This critical introduction the companion piece to the recently published plays in English Siberia and Other Plays 1994 and The Wild Woman and Other Plays 1995 introduces this important writer to an English speaking audience Because the topics dealt with in his plays have universal human validity and appeal there is every reason to believe that Felix Mitterer will find the same resonance in the English speaking world that he has received at home

Flight from Greatness Hans Weigel, 1998 Translation from the German work first published in 1978 presented here with an afterword by the translator Lowell A

Bangerter Six biographical essays on writers Ferdinand Raimund Johann Nestroy Franz Grillparzer Adalbert Stifter and composers Franz Schubert and Johann Strauss help illuminate the Austrian character The author contends that the common elements of not being recognized of being misunderstood and of self misunderstanding make up the Austrian fate or greatness fleeing from itself Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Refractions Alois Vogel,1995 This bitter political division between the parties was a major turning point in Austrian history and was one of the primary causes leading the country to annexation by Germany in 1938 The reader is shown that the situation did not have to become violent if politicians on both sides had shown more tolerance for different views Vogel a contemporary witness builds tension in the novel through the technique of flashback and creates an accurate first hand account of one of the most critical events in modern Austrian history

Of Reason and Love Carl Steiner,1994 Marie von Ebner Eschenbach stands out as one of the most unusual Austrian writers of the latter part of the nineteenth and the beginning of the twentieth century Known as the grande dame of Austrian literature she started her writing career as a dramatist who had the ambition of becoming a female Shakespeare She ended it as an aphorist and author of short stories novellas and novels Although she was not a leading figure in the women s movement of the turn of the century her writings which were much acclaimed in her maturing years went a long way toward putting women s literature on an equal footing with the literary output of her male peers in her own native land and abroad

Born-where Robert Schindel,1995 Robert Schindel s Born Where is a novel about origins a novel about the wages of history Its protagonists are contemporary Viennese and German Jews who are the children of those who were killed in the German extermination camps The uneasy intertwining of their lives with contemporary Germans and Austrians constitutes the panoramic epic that the Viennese author unfolds with keen insight and mordant humor The protagonist is a concentration camp survivor who is summoned back to Vienna to testify at a belated war crimes trial In the course of his reluctant return he meets the past and the present in Austria making readers aware of how things were and how much of history and of the legacy of racism still lingers on today This confrontation assimilation makes for among other things an intergenerational psychological ghost story Born Where touches on every aspect of the unresolved and perhaps unresolvable relations between contemporary Germans Austrians and Jews One subtheme concerns the Left s resistance to Nazism Another takes us inside the workings of contemporary Austrian bureaucracy There are also the invariably impossible romantic relationships between Jews and Germans
