Memory, Migration and Travel Sabine Marschall, 2018-05-16 Migration and forcible displacement are growing and impactful dynamics of the current global age. These processes generate mobility flows, travel patterns, and touristic behaviour driven by personal and collective memories. The chapters in this book highlight the importance of travel and tourism for enabling such memories and memory-based identity practices to unfold. This book investigates how diasporic communities, transnational migrants, refugees, and the internally displaced recreate home in their host place of residence through material culture, performativity, and social relations, and how involuntary, tangible and intangible stimuli evoke memories of home. It explores an array of diverse geographical contexts, balancing ethnographic vignettes of contemporary migrant societies with archival research providing historical accounts that reach back more than a century. Memory, Migration and Travel makes an original contribution by linking the emergent field of memory studies to the disciplines of tourism and migration, diaspora studies, and will be of interest to students and researchers in the fields of tourism, geography, migration, diaspora studies, anthropology, and sociology.
