British Methodist Revivalism and the Eclipse of Ecclesiology James E. Pedlar, 2023-12-01 Revivalism was one of the main causes of division in nineteenth century British Methodism but the role of revivalist theology in these splits has received scant scholarly attention In this book James E Pedlar demonstrates how the revivalist variant of Methodist spirituality and theology empowered its adherents and helped foster new movements even as it undermined the Spirit's work through the structures of the church Beginning with an examination of unresolved issues in John Wesley's ecclesiology Pedlar identifies a trend of increasing marginalisation of the church among revivalists via an examination of three key figures Hugh Bourne 1772 1852 James Caughey 1810 1891 and William Booth 1860 1932 He concludes by examining the more catholic and irenic theology of Samuel Chadwick 1860 1932 the leading Methodist revivalist of the early twentieth century who became a strong advocate of Methodist Union Pedlar shows that these theological differences must be considered alongside social and political factors in any well rounded assessment of the division and eventual reunification of British Methodism
