Conversion To Modernism:

Conversion to Modernism Francis M. Naumann, Man Ray, 2003 Man Ray 1890 1976 has long been considered one of the most versatile and innovative artists of the twentieth century As a painter writer sculptor photographer and filmmaker he is best known for his intimate association with the French Surrealist group in Paris during the 1920s and 1930s particularly for his highly inventive and unconventional photographic images These remarkable accomplishments however have tended to overshadow the importance of his earlier work significant not only for comprehending Man Ray s future artistic development but also for fleshing out our understanding of the visual arts in America during one of the most important and crucial phases of the evolution of modernism The book and the exhibition for which this work will serve as the catalog concentrate on Man Ray s production from 1907 to 1917 Conversion to Modernism will be the first comprehensive fully illustrated work to examine this artist s seminal years The show and the catalog begin with Man Ray s high school years in Brooklyn his studies at the Art Students League and the American Academy in New York and the time he spent in life drawing classes at the more progressive Ferrer Center From 1913 to 1915 Man Ray lived in a small artists colony in Grantwood New Jersey It was here studying with Samuel Halpert a former student of Matisse that Man Ray began to become the artist we know today The last section of the show and of the book include recently discovered photographs and other works that are influenced by a knowledge of the emergent Dada movement Here is Man Ray in recognizable form just before he leaves the country for France in 1921 This exhibit will first be on display at the Montclair Art Museum from January 26 through March 2003 It will then travel to museums in Athens Georgia Philadelphia and Chicago

The Orient of Style Beryl Schlossman, 1990-11-21 In this study of modernist aesthetics Beryl Schlossman reveals how for such writers as Marcel Proust Gustave Flaubert and Charles Baudelaire the Orient came to symbolize the highest aspirations of literary representation She demonstrates that through allegory modernism became a style itself a style that married the ancient and the modern and that emerged as both a cause and an effect both an ideal construct and an textual materiality all symbolized by the Orient land of style place of plurality and site of the coexistence of holy lands Toward the end of Remembrance of Things Past the narrator describes the act of creating a work of art as a conversion of sensation into a spiritual equivalent By means of such allegories of conversion Schlossman shows the modernist artist disappeared within the work of art and left behind the trace of his sublime vocation a vocation in which he was transformed in Schlossman s words into a kind of priest kneeling at the altar of beauty before the masked divinity of representation The author shows how allegory the representation of the symbolic as something real was adapted by modernist writers to reflect subjectivity while masking an authorial origin She reveals how modernist allegory arose as Walter Benjamin suggests at the crossroads of history sociology economics urban architecture and art providing a kind of map of capitalism and was produced through the eyes of a melancholic gazing at a monument of absence Two Or Three Graces Aldous Huxley, 1926 A bore is a person who drills a hole in your spirit through and through till he pierces to the
