The Dutch Down Under Nonja Peters, 2006 The celebrations of the first 400 years of relations between The Commonwealth of Australia and The Kingdom of The Netherlands mark a very special and important event for both countries The shared relationship between the two countries was first established in 1606 when the Dutch vessel Duyfken mapped part of the coast near present day Weipa Cape York Peninsula of the continent that would in time become known as Australia This event led to further encounters between early maritime pioneers and traces of early Dutch influence are still found in such Australian place names as Tasmania and Cape Leeuwin Over time subsequent global events forged closer links between the two countries as part of the post war migration from a war ravaged Europe to the population hungry Australia almost 170 000 Dutch nationals arrived down under It was this migration from Europe in the 1950s that allowed the Australian economy to move forward into more prosperous times Today there are some 270 000 Australian residents who were either born in the Netherlands or who claim Dutch ancestry The Dutch Down Under 1606 2006 provides illuminating commentary from 23 contributing authors on the history of these relationships and on the socio economic and cultural impact of the migration on both Dutch residents in Australia and their families in the Netherlands

Why Minorities Play or Don't Play Soccer Kausik Bandyopadhyay, 2013-09-13 Soccer the most popular mass spectator sport in the world has always remained a marker of identities of various sorts Behind the facade of its obvious entertainment aspect it has proved to be a perpetuating reflector of nationalism ethnicity community or communal identity and cultural specificity Naturally therefore the game is a complex representative of minorities status especially in countries where minorities play a crucial role in political social cultural or economic life The question is also important since in many nations success in sports like soccer has been used as an instrument for assimilation or to promote an alternative brand of nationalism Thus Jewish teams in pre Second World War Europe were set up to promote the idea of a muscular Jewish identity Similarly in apartheid South Africa soccer became the game of the black majority since it was excluded from the two principal games of the country rugby and cricket In India on the other hand the Muslim minorities under colonial rule appropriated soccer to assert their community identity The book examines why in certain countries minorities chose to take up the sport while in others they backed away from participating in the game or alternatively set up their own leagues and practised self exclusion The book examines European countries like the Netherlands England and France the USA Africa Australia and the larger countries of Asia particularly India This book was previously published as a special issue of Soccer and Society Strangers in the World Leo Eitinger, David Schwarz, 1981 Ethnic Minority Youth in Australia Carmel Guerra, Robert Douglas White, 1995 The experiences of young people in Australia from different ethnic minorities are explored The book investigates the different social contexts within which ethnic minority young people are located and covers general issues such as gender ethnicity feminism juvenile justice sport sexuality and mental health Specific case studies of the ethnic minority youth experience are provided along with information about programs and campaigns which address specific issues in education welfare provision and community action which relate to these young people Selected chapters are separately indexed Community Profiles 1991 Census Australian Government Publishing Service, 1994 Australian National Bibliography, 1990 Scandinavian Emigration to Australia and New Zealand Project Olavi Koivukangas, 1983 These proceedings of a 1982 symposium on Scandinavian emigration in Australia include presentations on three general topics field work conducted in Australia and New Zealand in 1980 82 research progress and Australian immigration policy The presentors and their papers are 1 Hans Norman The Emigration to America from the Nordic countries 2 Anthony Griffiths Australian Immigration 3 Olavi Koivukangas Scandinavians in Australia A General Review 4 Ulf Beijbom Scandinavian Emigration to Australia and New Zealand A Preliminary Report 5 Olavi Koivukangas Field Work in Australia February 9 April 30 1981 6 Ivo Holmqvist Field Work in New Zealand and Australia June 4 August 8 1981 7 Allan T Nilson Field Work in Australia November 10 1981 February 6 1982 8 James L Sanderson New South Wales Australia Progress Report February 1982 9 Sten Almqvist Swedish Pioneers in Australia A Summary 10 John S Martin Ethnic Identity and Social Organization in the Scandinavian Communities in Melbourne 1870 1919 11 Mark W Garner Language Use and Ethnicity among the Swedish Community 12 Anthony Griffiths The Finns in Bunyip 13 K J Battarbee From Finnish Farms to Australian Mines A Research Proposal 14 Peija Ilpola Multiculturalism in Australia and 15 Jan Reksten Australian Immigration Policy KH Australian Journal of Political Science, 1990 Immigrants and the Media Naomi Rosh White, Peter B.
