Our Commitment is to Our Communities David Gilbert,Bob Feldman,2014 David Gilbert recently wrote that the War on Crime which began in the early 1970s was in fact a conscious government counterinsurgency strategy to decimate and disrupt Black and other people of color communities across the United States In this pamphlet interviewed by Bob Feldman David uses this observation as his starting point to discuss the ongoing catastrophe that is mass incarceration connecting it to the continued imprisonment of political prisoners and the challenges that face our movements today Carolina Currents, Studies in South Carolina Culture Meredith A. Love,Christopher D. Johnson,2026-04-09 From the Piedmont to the Lowcountry South Carolina is the site of countless engaging stories The contributors to Carolina Currents share those stories broadening our understanding of the state s unique and diverse histories and cultures A venue for public facing interdisciplinary scholarship each volume presents a collection of essays that illuminate the complex interactions between the state s past and present Essays in volume 3 explore the relationship between travel and resistance as exemplified by South Carolina s Green Book businesses the complexities of race religion and criminal justice in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries and campus community connections at rural serving colleges Also included are an interview with novelist Lynn Kostoff and a review essay highlighting new books by South Carolina poets Community Efficiency Conference Under the Auspices State Young Men's Christian Association and Laymen's Christian Federation ,1926 Empowering People with Severe Mental Illness Donald M. Linhorst,2005-09-08

The concept of empowerment has become increasingly popular with mental health professionals But while it is a frequently cited goal in the helping professions empowerment is often nothing more than a buzzword that lacks specificity and grounding in real world applications Consequently little practical guidance exists demonstrating how to achieve it in specific instances with specific groups of people This book is the first professional guide that operationalizes the theory of empowerment outlines the conditions under which it is likely to occur and applies a practical model for working with people with severe mental illness In this unique and thoroughly researched volume Donald Linhorst analyzes the conditions that facilitate empowerment and provides the framework necessary to bolster this historically powerless population s access to the material and cultural resources they need to regain control of their lives Chapters illustrate how to foster empowerment in treatment planning housing selection organizational decision making mental health service planning and policy making employment participation in research and evaluation and consumer provision of mental health and support services Case studies from a public psychiatric hospital and a community mental health agency illustrate each of the seven areas and present evidence of the model s efficacy Finally the book maps out the roles that service providers administrators policy makers advocacy groups researchers and clients can play in the empowerment process Checklists step by step instructions historical overviews and vivid examples make this a valuable teaching tool planning guide and everyday reference for mental health professionals seeking an innovative and evidence based approach to working with their clients with severe mental illness Critical Pluralism, Democratic Performance, and Community Power Paul Schumaker,1991 Who governs is a central question in political science Typically political scientists address this question by relying upon either empirical analysis which explains existing political practices or normative analysis which describes ideal political practices

Community Programs for Cooperating Churches Roy Bergen Guild,1920 MH ,1919 A Social Action Model as Applied to the Edgerton Community Hospital Martin Hill Ross,1960 The Quest for Community and Identity Robert E. Birt,2002 This collection of essays engages two of the most fundamental social and political issues of our time community and identity Wrestling with the perplexities of these two issues within the Africana world the contributors delve into the influences of a postmodern world of globalization with outdated crumbling forms of identity and sociality In the wake of such an order new forms of identity and community must be established Birt has collected an informed group of contributors here who lay the foundation for a new approach to finding community and identity in the Africana world Mental Hygiene ,1919
