Community And Identities:

Community Identity Sebastian Kim, Pauline Kollontai, 2007-09-01 The understanding of identity in relation to community has been a focus of academic studies in recent years An exclusive self understanding of the identity of one's own community coupled with a hostile attitude toward other communities often leads to communal conflicts In particular it is important to notice the significance of religion in the re-shaping of community identities in this process This volume focuses first on communal or corporate understanding of identity Secondly this volume will assess the topic of identity from the perspectives of theology and religious studies Thirdly the volume will seek to address the issue of interaction between religious communities and wider society by looking at case studies from the Yorkshire area

The Quest for Community and Identity Robert E. Birt, 2002 This collection of essays engages two of the most fundamental social and political issues of our time community and identity Wrestling with the perplexities of these two issues within the Africana world the contributors delve into the influences of a postmodern world of globalization with outdated crumbling forms of identity and sociality In the wake of such an order new forms of identity and community must be established Birt has collected an informed group of contributors here who lay the foundation for a new approach to finding community and identity in the Africana world

Community Identity and Archaeology Naoise Mac Sweeney, 2011-10-25 Exploring the notion of community identity in an archaeological context

The Uses of Tradition in Building Community Identities Robert Mooney, 1994

Identity Jonathan Rutherford, 1998 This collection of essays addresses the issues and concerns raised by the emphasis on society not as a series of homogeneous interlocking blocks but as a plethora of different sometimes overlapping and often conflicting communities Reflecting for example on the experience of the GLC's attempt to create a new majority of minorities and on the clash of values and beliefs over The Satanic Verses these pieces explore both the opportunities and problems presented by the growing diversity of communities cultures and identities in contemporary society Topics covered include consumerism and the impact of green politics racism and psychoanalysis ethics and values AIDS and citizenship and feminism and age

Commonplaces David Mark Hummon, 1990-01-01 This book interprets popular American belief and sentiment about cities suburbs and small towns in terms of community ideologies Based on in-depth interviews with residents of American communities it shows how people construct a sense of identity based on their communities and how they perceive and explain community problems e.g. why cities have more crime than their suburban and rural counterparts in terms of this identity Hummon reveals the changing role of place imagery in contemporary society and offers an interpretation of American culture by treating commonplaces of community belief in an uncommon way as facets of competing community ideologies He argues that by adopting such ideologies people are able to make sense of reality and their place in the everyday world

Community-Identity Construction in Galatians Atsuhiko Asano, 2005-07-17 The issue of community identity construction in Galatians is considered using two methods first by applying anthropological theories to the mechanism and natures of community identity and its construction and second by comparing the Galatian community with another minority religious community Asano argues that Paul's effort at identity construction is partially conditioned by his self-awareness as an autonomous apostle and by the external pressures of the significant groups elsewhere Paul's conflict depicted in Galatians 2 and projected upon the Galatian situation is understood as a conflict between the ethno-centred and the instrumental mode of community constructions the latter of which is free from the constraints of core ethnic sentiment Galatians 4:21-31 is identified as a conceptual framework or recreated worldview for the community members to be assured of their authentic existence under marginalizing pressure This recreated worldview is ritually acted out in baptism with the egalitarian motif Gal 3:28 to help internalize the authentic identity Finally Paul's letter is suggested to have functioned as a physical locus of community identity Thus the autographic marker Gal 6:11 directs the attention of the audience not only to the conceptual content but to the presence of the founding apostle that the letter replaces

Community Robert Morrison MacIver, 1924 Red Lodge and the Mythic West Bonnie Christensen, 2002 Tracing the story of Red Lodge from the 1880s to the present Christensen tells how a mining town managed to endure the vagaries of the West's unpredictable extractive industries economy She connects Red Lodge to a myriad of larger events and historical forces to show how national and regional influences have contributed to the development of local identities exploring how and why westerners first rejected and then embraced western images and how ethnicity wilderness and historic preservation became part of the identity that defined one town

BOOK JACKET Ski Style Annie Gilbert Coleman, 2004 Coleman traces skiing from its Norse roots and Alpine influences through the utility of ski travel in the winter Rockies to the rise of Colorado resorts Much more than a history of the sport her work explains how the recreation industry sold the experience of skiing and created mythic mountain landscapes with real problems and a ski culture that exalts celebrity and status over the physical act of skiing Jacket Bengal, Past & Present ,1907 Seeking Identity Raymond A. Belliotti,1995 Outlining the unwritten but deeply ingrained system of moral codes that Italian immigrants brought to America Belliotti examines that system in relation to moral theorists who argue we owe the most to people close to us and those who contend we must attach no special weight to our own interests when determining proper moral action He also investigates philosophical historical sociological and political aspects of government authority examines conflicting images of Italian immigrant women and analyzes war and pacifism The Changing American Countryside Emery N. Castle,1995 The literature on rural America to the extent that it exists has largely been written by urban based scholars perpetuating out of date notions and stereotypes or by those who see little difference between rural and agricultural concerns As a result the real rural America remains much misunderstood neglected or ignored by scholars and policymakers alike In response Emery Castle offers The Changing American Countryside a volume that will forever change how we look at this important subject Castle brings together the writings of eminent scholars from several disciplines and varying backgrounds to take a fresh and comprehensive look at the forgotten hinterlands These authors examine the role of non metropolitan people and places in the economic life of our nation and cover such diverse issues as poverty industry the environment education family social problems ethnicity race religion gender government public policy and regional diversity The authors are especially effective in demonstrating why rural America is so much more than just agriculture It is in fact highly diverse complex and interdependent with urban America and the international market place Most major rural problems they contend simply cannot be effectively addressed in isolation from their urban and international connections To do so is misguided and even hazardous when one fourth of our population and ninety seven per cent of our land area is rural Together these writings not only provide a new and more realistic view of rural life and public policy but also suggest how the field of rural studies can greatly enrich our understanding of national life Community, a sociological study Robert Morrison MacIver,1917 Documents of the Assembly of the State of New York New York (State).
