

Alignment

Signs will give you guidance
To your fit within your world
As you steer in a new direction
As your sails are now unfurled
Gathering the strength of wind
And power of the light
Will help to move you forward
From the shadow of the night

As actions come together
Connections are revealed
Possibilities are presented
And fates are likely sealed

There's flow within alignment
The future draws us near
When we embrace our passion
And just let go our fear

I, the Poet Kathleen McCarthy, 2019-10-15 First person poetry is a familiar genre in Latin literature Propertius Catullus and Horace deployed the first person speaker in a variety of ways that either bolster or undermine the link between this figure and the poet himself In I the Poet Kathleen McCarthy offers a new approach to understanding the ubiquitous use of a first person voice in Augustan age poetry taking on several of the central debates in the field of Latin literary studies including the inheritance of the Greek tradition the shift from oral performance to written collections and the status of the poetic I voice In light of her own experience as a twenty first century reader for whom Latin poetry is meaningful across a great gulf of linguistic cultural and historical distances McCarthy positions these poets as the self conscious readers of and heirs to a long tradition of Greek poetry which prompted them to explore radical forms of communication through the poetic form Informed in part by the New Lyric Studies I the Poet will appeal not only to scholars of Latin literature but to readers across a range of literary studies who seek to understand the Roman contexts which shaped canonical poetic genres

The Digby Poems Bodleian Library, 2009 Helen Barr's new edition comprises the 24 short lyrics of Oxford Bodleian MS Digby 102 freshly transcribed and edited There is a full critical apparatus with a substantial introduction and annotation to each poem New evidence shows that this sequence of poems was written in the early years of Henry V's reign and most probably by a Benedictine monk eager to add his support for the Henrician new dawn The poems are rigorous in their call for orthodox reform from within the Church There is strong support for war against France and for the proper conduct of parliamentary business Throughout the concerns of Church and State are inseparable from a fierce call for penance both collective and individual The sequence contains some harrowing devotional writing and human beings are left in no doubt as to their failings Yet the poet's voice is spry and dexterous and there is an especially agile use of stanzaic form Barr's extensive annotation brings out not just the political emphasis of the poems but also their place in the tradition of devotional writing Book Jacket English Poetry Charles Mills Gayley, Clement Calhoun Young, Benjamin Putnam Kurtz, 1913 Yale Studies in English Stephen Cushman, 1985 Gnomic Poetry in Anglo-Saxon Blanche Colton Williams, 1914 Aligning Hearts Johan Kirsipuu, 2024-11-04 In Aligning Hearts a tender collection of verses the poet explores the intricate dance of love and connection weaving together emotions that resonate deep within the soul Through vivid imagery and heartfelt language each poem captures the essence of relationships celebrating their beauty navigating their challenges and ultimately revealing the profound unity that love can create From the first flutter of romance to the warmth of enduring companionship this book invites readers to journey through the peaks and valleys of emotional landscapes With a blend of vulnerability and strength Aligning Hearts reminds us that the most meaningful connections are those that align not just in moments of joy but also in times of trial Perfect for lovers of poetry and seekers of heartfelt reflections this collection encourages readers to embrace the complexities of the heart and find solace in the shared experiences of love Each page offers an invitation to reflect inspire and ultimately align our hearts with one another English Poetry: Its Principles and Progress Charles Mills Gayley, Clement Calhoun Young, 1904 Brecht's Poetry Peter Whitaker, 1985 This is the first comprehensive critical survey of Brecht's poetry from its beginnings in World War I to the 1950s to appear in either English or German Offering a new perspective on the poet's work it draws on the most current publications and on unpublished archival material to relate the poems to Brecht's other writings and to sit them in historical context Individual texts many not previously discussed elsewhere are analyzed and many earlier readings of well known poems are reassessed Studies in the Lyric Poems of Friedrich Hebbel Albert Edward Gubelmann, 1912 The Best of Pope Alexander Pope, 1929 Poetry Review Stephen Phillips, Galloway Kyle, 1926
