Wheeler, 2012-01-15 In his early forties Richard Wheeler had never given a thought to writing fiction By his early seventies he had written sixty novels And these were being published while he was climbing the masts of a sinking ship This late in life novelist didn't tackle high literature but the sweaty world of genre fiction where the publishers advances barely paid the rent He wrote western fiction and when that genre began to ship water he leapt over to historical novels and finally biographical novels where he found himself in an odd literary corner without competition This is a memoir of literary struggle of agents and editors of jackets and publicity and book tours This is also a story about the astonishing help he received along the way from friends best selling novelists agents editors and publishers Writing may be a lonely profession but Wheeler discovered that the world of genre fiction writers is populated with caring and wise colleagues Here Wheeler evokes his early struggles which somehow prepared him for a life as a successful novelist He discusses shattered dreams and sudden joys And running through his narrative is his passion to write about the West in new ways RICHARD S WHEELER is the author of sixty novels of the West the winner of five Spur Awards and the recipient of the Owen Wister Award for lifetime achievement in the literature of the American West Many of his novels are now in trade paperback editions from Sunstone Press UFOs and Abductions David Michael Jacobs, 2000 Examining the nature of UFO evidence the authors present a primer for scholars skeptics and others uneasy about investigating the field of UFOs The volume also brings together three bestselling authors David M Jacobs Budd Hopkins and Pulitzer Prize winner John Mack widely known for their writings on the controversial alien abduction phenomenon What Western Do I Read Next? Wayne Barton, 1999 What Western Do I Read Next describes and indexes approximately 1 900 titles published between 1989 and 1998 providing access to information genre readers need to select their next best read title series author publisher characters locale time period plot summary and similar authors Chief Loco Bud Shapard, 2012-11-26 Winner of the 2011 New Mexico Book Award in the multi cultural category Jlin tay i tith better known as Loco was the only Apache leader to make a lasting peace with both Americans and Mexicans Yet most historians have ignored his efforts and some Chiricahua descendants have branded him as fainthearted despite his well known valor in combat In this engaging biography Bud Shapard tells the story of this important but overlooked chief against the backdrop of the harrowing Apache wars and eventual removal of the tribe from its homeland to prison camps in Florida Alabama and Oklahoma Tracing the events of Loco's long tenure as a leader of the Warm Springs Chiricahua band Shapard tells how Loco steered his followers along a treacherous path of unforeseeable circumstances and tragic developments in the mid to late 1800s While recognizing the near impossibility of Apache American coexistence Loco persevered in his quest for peace against frustrating odds and often treacherous U S government policy

Even as Geronimo Naiche and others continued their raiding and sought to undermine Loco's efforts this visionary chief motivated by his love for children maintained his commitment to keep Apache families safe from wartime dangers Based on extensive research including interviews with Loco's grandsons and other descendants Shapard's biography is an important counterview for historians and buffs interested in Apache history and a moving account of a leader ahead of his time
