Peter Abelard: Collationes Peter Abelard, 2001-02-15 Peter Abelard 1079 1142 is widely recognized as one of the most important writers of the twelfth century famed for his skill in logic as well as his romance with Heloise Even among Abelard's writings the Collationes or Dialogue between a Christian a Philosopher and a Jew are remarkable for their daring and intellectual imaginativeness Written probably c 1130 the work contains the fullest exposition of many aspects of Abelard's ethics the only statement of his unusual eschatological theory and some of his most interesting ideas about faith and the relationship between theism and revealed religion This is the first full critical edition of the Collationes Based on an entirely new collation of the manuscripts it provides a facing page English translation detailed notes and an extensive historical and philosophical introduction Collationes Peter Abelard, John Marenbon, Giovanni Orlandi, 2001 This critical edition of the Collationes or Dialogue between a Christian a Philosopher and a Jew contains aspects of Abelard's ethics his eschatological theory and ideas about faith and the relationship between theism and revealed religion Rethinking Abelard Babette S. Buytaert, 1969 The Philosophy of Peter Abelard John Marenbon, 1997 This book offers a major reassessment of the philosophy of Peter Abelard 1079 1142 which shows that he was a far more constructive and wider ranging thinker than has usually been supposed It combines detailed historical discussion based on published and manuscript sources with philosophical analysis which aims to make clear Abelard's central arguments about the nature of things language and the mind and about morality Although the book concentrates on these philosophical questions it places them within their theological and wider intellectual context

Aristotelian Logic, Platonism, and the Context of Early Medieval Philosophy in the West John Marenbon, 2024-10-28 Philosophy in the medieval Latin West before 1200 is often thought to have been dominated by Platonism The articles in this volume question this view by cataloguing describing and investigating the tradition of Aristotelian logic in the period examining its influence on authors usually placed within the Platonic tradition Eriugena Anselm Gilbert of Poitiers and also looking at some of the characteristics of early medieval Platonism Abelard the most brilliant logician of the age is the main subject of three articles and the book concludes with two more general discussions about how and why medieval philosophy should be studied A Dialogue of a Philosopher with a Jew, and a Christian Peter Abelard, 1979 Translation of Dialogus inter philosophum iudaeum et christianum Christians and Jews in Dispute Anna Sapir Abulafia, 2024-10-28 The articles brought together here use anti Jewish disputational literature to shed light on the rise of anti Judaism in the West Christian theologians at this time were particularly interested to work out the relationship between Christianity and Judaism because they were in the process of clarifying their own doctrines under the influence of classical material which had not been fully utilised since late Antiquity In this context a response to the continued and vociferous Jewish rejection of Christianity seemed all the more urgent It is not for nothing that the output of anti Jewish polemics rose sharply towards the end of the 11th century and simultaneously became more and more sophisticated Many of the anti Jewish ideas of later centuries go back to what was formulated in the 11th and 12th centuries
