Cognition and Image Formation in Literature Louk M. P. T. Wijzen, 1980 The credibility of the traditional psychoanalytic method of interpreting literature is lacking both within the field of literary and of psychoanalytic studies In conjunction with a discussion of the untenable hypotheses and analogies that have formed the basis of traditional psychoanalytic involvement with literature this work evaluates the psychoanalytic theory and conceptualizations that are relevant to the study of literature Its premise is that the literary symbol functions in a reader s cognitive affective responses to a text which constitutes a psychological synthesis of text and reader identities
