Puja Mehta

Aberhart Summer:

The Aberhart Summer Bruce Powe, Goodlake, Thomas, 1984      The Aberhart Summer Conni Louise Massing, 1999

Based on the novel by Bruce Allen Powe The Aberhart Summer is a dark coming-of-age story where desperation, secrets and tragedy affect the lives of the people in an Edmonton neighbourhood during the Depression. A mystery, a comedy and a gripping look at Alberta history.

Aberhart Laurence Aberhart, 2007 In a definitive overview of Laurence Aberhart's work to date, 238 full-page reproductions of iconic photographs of churches, marae, cemeteries, Masonic Lodges and other subjects are accompanied by essays by New Zealand art writers Gregory O'Brien and Justin Paton. O'Brien pursues the motif of the horizon through Aberhart's work, considering the many journeys that his career encompasses and the shelters and structures seen along the way, while Paton focuses on the human presences that animate Aberhart's body of work. The Social Credit Movement in Alberta John A. Irving, 1959-12-15 On the night of August 22, 1935, as Canadians listened to their radios, they heard with amazement and incredulity that the first Social Credit government in the world had been elected that day in the province of Alberta. Before the tabulation of votes was completed, telephone calls from New York and London, headlines in newspapers, spot news in broadcasts had confirmed the slogan of Social Creditors: "The Eyes of the World are on Alberta." The morning after the election, a number of people lined up at the city hall in Calgary to collect the first installment of the Social Credit dividend of 25 monthly, which they confidently believed would be immediately forthcoming from their new government. This quotation from Professor Irving's book indicates how the apparent suddenness of the Social Credit rise to power and the magnitude of the victory aroused world-wide comment. Why had the doctrines of Social Credit, promoted unsuccessfully in the British Commonwealth and the United States for nearly twenty years, achieved political acceptance in Alberta? Why had the people of Alberta elected to public office persons so little experienced in the economic and political world as William Aberhart and his Social Credit colleagues? Professor Irving answers these questions and analyses systematically and comprehensively the rise of the movement as a phenomenon of mass psychology. His study, based mainly on interviews, supplemented with references to private papers, newspapers and government sources, provides a truly fascinating record.

North American Encounters Dieter Meindl, 2002 These essays in English, except for four items in German and French, provide an intercultural perspective. They deal with such diverse aspects of North America, including Quebecois literature. The continental context also pervades treatments of novels featuring Indian wars, sentimentalism, the West and modern parables, story cycles, e.g. Atwood's and the long poem Kroetsch. Saturday Night, 1984 Mavericks Aritha Van Herk, 2010-01-12 The fifth title in our provincial histories series, Mavericks is an idiosyncratic and episodic history of what is arguably Canada's most unconventional province. From mapmakers to ranchers, Stampede Wrestling to Stockwell Day, acclaimed writer Aritha van Herk brings the drama and combative beauty of this irascible province to stunning life. Van Herk's portrait of her home province embraces all its extremes, from deadly and spectacular weather to dinosaur graveyards.

and from oil gushers and geysers to barnstorming social reformers and political haymakers Bronc riders of boom and bust Alberta s people are a beguiling mixture of opinionated extremists hardy pioneers and gentle sinners Alberta is a province that most Canadians simply don t understand the province most Canadians love to hate It is regarded as a land of reckless redneck and ignorant individualists But it is also the province where the Famous Five fought the landmark Person s Case giving Canadian women the same status as men in the eyes of the law a province that truly believes in free speech Albertans tolerate in their midst people whose extreme views on any manner of subjects would make them outcasts elsewhere And Albertans practice the creed of western neighbourliness giving assiduously to charity and always lending a hand where help is needed They are a tough tender bunch squinting into the wind of determined difference If you re an Albertan you ll recognize yourself and your home in this book If you re not an Albertan this book will be an education for you Mavericks will open your eyes to the real Alberta as she was and is

New World Myth Marie Vautier,1998 In this comparative study of six Canadian novels Marie Vautier examines reworkings of myth in the postcolonial context While myths are frequently used in literature as transhistorical master narratives she argues that these novels destabilize the traditional function of myth in their self conscious reexamination of historical events from a postcolonial perspective Through detailed readings of Fran ois Barcelo s La Tribu George Bowering s Burning Water Jacques Godbout s Les T tes Papineau Joy Kogawa s Obasan Jovette Marchessault s Comme une enfant de la terre and Rudy Wiebe s The Scorched Wood People Vautier situates New World myth within the broader contexts of political history and of classical biblical and historical myths
