Abortion In The New Europe A Comparative Handbook:

Abortion in the New Europe Bill Rolston, Anna Eggert, 1994-09-30 In brief concise chapters this volume considers the status of abortion in Europe today Each chapter provides an overview of abortion in the subject country including the historical background the current legal medical and social situation and the political forces for and against abortion In an introductory chapter the editors consider the issues pertaining to abortion in the aftermath of the Cold War The volume then includes chapters on Austria Belgium Britain Bulgaria the Czech and Slovak Republics Denmark Finland France Germany Hungary Ireland the Netherlands Norway Poland Portugal Spain Sweden Switzerland and the former Soviet Union Each chapter was written by an authority of the country and the contributors were asked to answer a specific set of questions concerning the law in the subject country abortion in practice the politics of abortion and the future The approach makes the book a valuable tool for comparative analysis

Theorizing Feminist Policy Amy G. Mazur, 2002-02-07 Theorizing Feminist Policy avoids the usual clash between feminist analysis and non feminist social science in mapping out the new field of feminist comparative policy Instead it intersects empirical feminist policy analysis with non feminist policy studies to define and contribute to this new and emerging field of study Consulting a wide sweep of empirical and theoretical work the book first defines Feminist Comparative Policy showing how it dialogs with the adjacent non feminist areas of Comparative Public Policy Comparative Politics and Public Policy Studies Theorizing Feminist Policy seeks then to strengthen one of the weakest links of this new area the study of explicitly feminist government action In the remaining chapters the books defines feminist policy as a separate sector with eight sub sectors blueprint political representation equal employment reconciliation family law reproductive rights sexuality and violence and public service delivery It develops a qualitative and comparative framework for analysing the profiles and styles of feminist policy in post industrial democracies and uses the framework to examine twenty seven different cases of feminist policy formation across thirteen different countries The initial empirical study makes a case for feminist policy as a new sector of state action concluding tentatively that successful feminist policy formation is a subtle combination of feminist strategic partnerships non feminist support institutions culture and international influences These tentative findings also shed new light on the perennial questions of comparative politics and policy do politics institutions national policy style sector institutions or culture matter the most in determining policy processes and outcomes The books finishes by suggesting the next steps in developing comparative theories of feminist policy formation Theorising Feminist Policy therefore goes beyond just describing the dimensions of feminist policy from existing literature it seeks to systematically contribute to comparative theories of how the contemporary post industrial state has taken on social change at the beginning of the 21st century

Abortion in the New Europe Bill Rolston, Anna Eggert, 1994-09-30 In brief concise chapters this volume considers the status of abortion in Europe today Each chapter provides an overview of abortion in the subject country including the historical background the current legal medical and

Law, Religion, Constitution W. Cole Durham, Silvio Ferrari, Cristiana Cianitto, Donlu Thayer, 2016-04-29 What is the place assigned to religion in the constitutions of contemporary States What role is religion expected to perform in the fields that are the object of constitutional regulation Is separation of religion and politics a necessary precondition for democracy and the rule of law These questions are addressed in this book through an analysis of the constitutional texts that are in force in different parts of the world Constitutions are at the centre of almost all contemporary legal systems and provide the principles and values that inspire the action of the national law makers After a discussion of some topics that are central to the constitutional regulation of religion the book considers a number of national systems covering countries with a variety of religious and cultural backgrounds The final section of the book is devoted to the discussion of the constitutional regulation of some particularly controversial issues such as religious education the relation between freedom of speech and freedom of religion abortion and freedom of conscience

Abortion Rita J. Simon, 1998-09-17 Abortion is one of the most compelling public policy issues facing government and the public in the United States today Most societies have enacted laws and statutes regarding abortion and most societies have strong feelings regarding birth control and abortion But the legal statutes and attitudes follow markedly different approaches Simon examines how this issue is being faced in the United States Canada a sample of Western and Eastern European countries Middle Eastern African and Latin American societies and among Asian countries Japan China and India along with Australia After a brief historical introduction Simon examines the legal statutes pertaining to abortion in the selected countries and then reviews public attitudes toward abortion based on responses to national public opinion polls She concludes by discussing the relationships between the laws and statutes pertaining to abortion and the nations policies vis D a vis population growth and control Abortion is the first volume in a series that will examine major public policy issues using an explicitly comparative approach Each will serve as a handbook for students researchers and scholars containing basic empirical data and comprehensive references on the social issue or practice under examination

Abortion in the Ancient World K. A. Kapparis,2002-06-27 In this important new study Kapparis extrapolates the views of ancient physicians on abortion from a detailed investigation of the medical facts medical and philosophical theories concerning the human status of the unborn in antiquity the Hippocratic Oath and other documents on Greek medical ethics Tulsa Journal of Comparative & International Law ,1999

Abortion Marie Costa,1996 Abortion has existed since ancient times but the debate over the legality and morality of abortion has never been so widespread It is a controversy that concerns YAs not only because it has become a notorious political issue but because it is an issue that many may have to face For this reason it is a common topic for research papers in middle school and high school Costa s book will be a great starting point for these papers It is the second edition of a book that was well reviewed when first published in 1991 The first edition made Library Journal s list of Best Reference Books of 1991 and School Library Journal s Recommended Reference Books 1992 Unlike The Abortion Controversy Greenhaven 1995 it is not organized by arguments pro and con Rather it consists of several chapters of objective research material a chronology of events beginning with Classical Greece biographical sketches of current movers and shakers on both sides of the issue laws policies and landmark court cases as well as extensive abortion statistics There is a frank discussion of abortion techniques and complications psychological and physical and an overview of fetal development It concludes with a lengthy annotated directory of organizations and an extensive bibliography of print and nonprint materials The purpose of the book is to present historical and factual background information objectively along with resources for further exploration For instance the reader will learn that in 1864 the American Medical Association established a prize for the best anti abortion book written for the lay public One will also find that the most common reason for having an abortion is that a baby would interfere with work school or other responsibilities In the statistical section a reader will see that 89 percent of abortions are performed within the first twelve weeks of pregnancy The biography section includes a profile of Mary Cunningham Agee founder of the Nurturing Network which offers alternatives to abortion for women who fear that their unintended pregnancies will do irreparable harm to their education or career
