Abortion law reform in Africa: A reproductive health and rights perspective Charles Ngwena, Ebenezer Durojaye, Satang Nabaneh, Nkatha Murungi, 2025-05-26 Despite notable legal and policy advancements in post colonial Africa unsafe abortion remains a pressing public health concern Abortion Law Reform in Africa A Reproductive Health and Rights Perspective spearheaded by the late Professor Charles Ngwena offers a vital and timely examination of this ongoing challenge This collection of essays moves beyond a mere analysis of legal texts unpacking the deep rooted barriers that continue to limit access to safe abortion services in Africa The authors critically assess the real world impact of current reforms highlighting their shortcomings in providing accessible rights based care They offer concrete strategies aimed at strengthening legal and policy frameworks to promote reproductive autonomy improve reproductive health outcomes and advance gender equality for women and girls confronting unwanted pregnancies Through a compelling exploration of how restrictive laws push countless women towards unsafe procedures often with fatal or debilitating consequences the volume underscores that meaningful reform demands more than legislative change It calls for addressing the broader social economic and cultural determinants that restrict access to abortion care By advocating for the implementation of progressive instruments such as the African Women s Protocol this book stands as a powerful call to action for African policymakers and stakeholders to facilitate access to safe abortion care services It urges the adoption of comprehensive and transformative measures that can truly secure women s rights to safe abortion and prevent needless suffering and death Constitutional Amendments Relating to Abortion United States. 1794 1799 Abortion Law Reform Alan Ker Stout,1968 Happy Abortions Erica Millar,2017-12-15 A provocative and important book that every pro choice advocate should read Sin ad Kennedy Coalition to Repeal the 8th Amendment When it comes to abortion today s liberal climate has produced a common sense that is both pro choice and anti abortion The public are fed an unchanging version of what the abortion choice entails and how women experience it While it would prove highly unpopular to insist that all pregnant women should carry their pregnancy to term the idea that abortion could or should be a happy experience for women is virtually unspeakable In this careful and intelligent work Erica Millar shows how the emotions of abortion are constructed in sharp contrast to the emotional position occupied by motherhood the unassailable placeholder for women s happiness Through an exposition of the cultural and political forces that continue to influence the decisions women make about their pregnancies forces that are synonymous with the rhetoric of choice Millar argues for a radical reinterpretation of women s freedom The Case for the Reform of the Abortion Laws Janet Chance,1936

Doctors and Demonstrators Drew Halfmann,2011-07-15 Since Roe v Wade abortion has continued to be a divisive political issue in the United States In contrast it has remained primarily a medical issue in Britain and Canada despite the countries shared heritage Doctors and Demonstrators looks beyond simplistic cultural or religious explanations to find out why abortion politics and policies differ so dramatically in these otherwise similar countries Drew Halfmann argues that political institutions are the key In the United States federalism judicial review and a private health care system contributed to the public definition of abortion as an individual right rather than a medical necessity Meanwhile Halfmann explains the porous structure of American political parties gave pro choice and pro life groups the opportunity to move the issue onto the political agenda A groundbreaking study of the complex legal and political factors behind the evolution of abortion policy Doctors and Demonstrators will be vital for anyone trying to understand this contentious issue Brigham Young
