Robinson, 2004-09-08 Please Do Not Annoy torment pester plague molest worry badger harry persecute irk bullyrag vex disquiet grate beset bother tease nettle tantalize or ruffle the Animals sign at zoo Since the early days of traveling menageries and staged attractions that included animal acts balloon ascents and pyrotechnic displays zoos have come a long way The Menagerie du Jardin des Plantes in Paris founded in 1793 didn't offer its great apes lessons in parenting or perform dental surgery on leopards Certainly the introduction of veterinary care in the nineteenth century and its gradual integration into the twentieth has had much to do with this Today we expect more of zoos as animal welfare concerns have escalated along with steady advances in science medicine and technology

Life at the Zoo is an eminent zoo veterinarian's personal account of the challenges presented by the evolution of zoos and the expectations of their visitors Based on fifteen years of work at the world famous San Diego Zoo this charming book reveals the hazards and rewards of running a modern zoo Zoos exist outside of the natural order in which the worlds of humans and myriad exotic animals would rarely if ever collide But this unlikely encounter is precisely why today's zoos remain the sites of much humor confusion and occasionally danger This book abounds with insights on wildlife foulmouthed parrots gum chewing chimps stinky flamingoes human behavior the fierce competition for zookeeper jobs the well worn shtick of tour guides and the casualties both animal and human of ignorance and carelessness Phillip Robinson shows how animal exhibits are developed and how illnesses are detected and describes the perils of working around dangerous creatures From escaping the affections of a leopard that thought he was a lap cat to training a gorilla to hold her newborn baby gently instead of scrubbing the floor with it and from operating on an anesthetized elephant I had the insecure sensation of working under a large dump truck with a wobbly support jack to figuring out why a zoo's polar bears were turning green in color Life at the Zoo tells irresistible stories about zoo animals and zoo people
