About Face Asian Accounts Of Australia:

About Face Alison Broinowski, 2003 This study explores how Australia appears to people from to Asian societies with the most significant interactions with Australia The surveys concentrate on people whose views are on the public record in various media who significantly reflect opinion in their society and who can therefore be taken to be both influential and to some extent representative The results of this comprehensive survey which suggest Australia has an image problem in the region are detailed Understanding Australia's Neighbours Nick Knight, Michael Heazle, Daniel Halvorson, 2011-09-26 A comprehensive introduction to the study of Asia Written thematically it provides comparisons between Asian and Australian societies and encourages readers to think about Australia's neighbours across a wide range of social economic and historical contexts

Governance and Regionalism in Asia Nicholas Thomas, 2009-01-13 In the decade since the Asian financial crisis the ten states of Southeast Asia that form ASEAN together with China Japan and South Korea have formed the basis of a community intended to support the well being of its member states markets and peoples This highly successful regionalisation was not anticipated by the region's leaders however and as a result policy makers are increasingly talking about meeting fatigue and the need to find a better way to govern regional affairs Among the reforms being considered is a shift towards a more rules based culture as well as the more explicit incorporation of both private sector and civil society organisations into the policy processes In short ASEAN 3 is seeking to develop new norms and processes for its networks and institutions This book explores the pressures currently influencing East Asian regionalist policy debates analysing the trend towards deeper integration and the emergence of a governance model for managing regional processes Combining state and subnational perspectives in conjunction with an examination of the role of the business community and civil society organisations this book highlights the policy challenges confronting regionalism and governance in East Asia including key issues such as the rule of law financial cooperation and a case study on disaster management

The Australian Embassy in Tokyo and Australia-Japan Relations Kate Darian-Smith, David Lowe, 2023-03-02 Relations between Australia and Japan have undergone both testing and celebrated times since 1952 when Australia's ambassadorial representation in Tokyo commenced Over the years interactions have deepened beyond mutual trade objectives to encompass economic defence and strategic interests within the Indo Pacific region and beyond This special relationship has been characterised by the high volume of people moving between Australia and Japan for education tourism business science and research Cultural ties from artists in residence to sister city agreements have flourished Australia has supported Japan in times of need including the aftermath of the 2011 Tohoku earthquake This book shows how the Australian embassy in Tokyo through its programs and people has been central to these developments The embassy's buildings its gardens and grounds and above all its occupants from senior Australian diplomats to locally engaged staff are the focus of this multidimensional study by former diplomats and expert observers of Australia's engagement with Japan Drawing on oral histories memoirs and archives this volume sheds new light on the complexity of Australia's diplomatic work in Japan and the role of the embassy in driving high level negotiations as well as fostering soft power influences With a similar vision for the Indo Pacific region and a like minded approach to the challenges facing us Australia and Japan have become more intimate and more strategic as partners I am very pleased to see this slice of Australian diplomatic history so well accounted for in this book Jan Adams AO PSM Secretary Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade Australia's Ambassador to Japan November 2020 June 2022

Australian Book Review, 2006 War, Strategy and History Daniel Marston, Tamara Leahy, 2016-05-31 This is a collection of essays in honour of eminent Professor Robert O'Neill Each chapter was written by prominent academics and practitioners who have had a professional connection with Professor O'Neill during his long and distinguished career The overarching themes running throughout the book are war strategy and history All the essays are shaped by the role that Professor O'Neill has played over the last 50 years in the debates in Australia Europe and the US This book covers not only Professor O'Neill's impressive career but also the evolution of strategy in practice and of strategic studies as an internationally recognised academic discipline Who's who in Australia 2008, 2007 A biographic reference to notable people in Australia Entrants are drawn from all areas of Australian life including the arts politics education medicine defence business diplomatic service and recipients of honours and awards Australian Security After 9/11 Derek McDougall, Peter Shearman, 2006 Australia has been an active and loyal member of the US led coalitions of the willing first in Afghanistan and then in Iraq The terrorist attacks in Bali brought home to Australia the direct nature of the new global terrorist threats to its own security This volume brings together leading experts on international security and Australia's foreign and security policies in a critical examination of Australia's adaptations to the new security challenges Chinese in Australian Fiction, 1888-1988 Yu Ouyang, 2008 The first Chinese in Australia are said to have arrived as early as 1818 and since then many more have made Australia their homeland the current Chinese population is over half a million It is therefore not surprising that the Chinese are featured in many Australian literary works This book examines the representation of the Chinese in Australian fiction from 1888 to 1988 with an Author Commentary at the end that provides a brief update on the subsequent fictional representations of the Chinese It begins with an overview of the Chinese in Australian and Chinese history followed by a theoretical examination of how the Chinese are made the Other by Orientalism racism and ethnocentrism It discusses literary texts written over a period of one hundred years from 1888 to 1988 The study is divided into three major periods of 1888-1901 1902-1949 and 1950-1988 The first period 1888-1901 deals with the initial attempts to represent the Chinese in fiction as the bad Other by the early Bulletin writers the Australian responses to the rise of the fear of the Yellow Peril in invasion literature and the imperialist will to power over the Chinese in writings set in China by Anglo-Australian writers Apart from pursuing the issue of the continued fear and stereotyping of the Chinese in popular writing the second period 1902-1949 introduces a new phenomenon of literary Sinophilism that dichotomizes the representation of the Chinese and examines the image of Chinese women The third period 1950 1988 focuses on the problem of politicisation that polarizes literary attitudes towards the Chinese and discusses Australia s Asian writing as an extension of colonial writing that continues to Other the Chinese and explores multicultural writing as an alternative means of representation This is an important book that illustrates how the Other is represented and will be a valuable book for those in Australian studies Asian studies and literary studies New Zealand International Review ,2007 Far Eastern Economic Review ,2003 India-Australia Relations Indian Association for the Study of Australia.
