The August 1979

Dear Ronnie and Henriette — if you'll forgive me being so personal:

I'm so very disappointed: but I must turn down your kind offer of the weekend of the 25th after all. I have to go to New York on the 28th, so must come rushing back from Maidenhead to try and prepare myself.

I really was looking forward to it, and am so sorry. Perhaps if they ever let one loose (doubtful, I think, from the schedule), I could come over during the week?

I hope you had a wonderful time in Switzerland — and I very much hope to meet you while I'm in Yorkshire.

Again — my apologies and regrets.

All good wishes,

Philippe H.
