Abraham Twohill:

Abraham Two-Hill Jason Broadwater,2005-08 This strong Southern gothic and historical story follows a mysterious drifter named Abraham to a cove called Two Hill outside of Asheville North Carolina Abraham is progress personified And progress brings with it good and bad Through the course of the novel Two Hill is radically changed by commerce and traffic and Abraham is at the center of it all He becomes a father figure to the town and everyone in the community becomes indebted to him in one way or another His existence begins to dissipate no longer seen as a man at all but a legend a myth a cliché of a kindly slave owner of his antebellum past in a mansion up on the hill Is he good Is he bad One may as well try to answer that question about Progress itself It is neither and both It is ambiguous and to be judged by the individual Yet it is overwhelmingly powerful as is the man they call Abraham Two Hill
