Buddhism In Central Asia:

Buddhism in Central Asia Baij Nath Puri, 1987 Buddhism in Central Asia is a saga of peaceful pursuit by Buddhist scholars from Kashmir and Kabul to propagate the message of the Buddha This vast region between the Tien Shan and the Kunlun ranges was the centre of activities of these Buddhist savants Here people of different races and professions speaking many languages were finally blended into a cosmopolitan culture This created an intellectual climate of high order In this context the famous silk trade route was helpful in adding to the material prosperity of the people in this region The present study therefore is not one of Buddhism in isolation It equally provides an account of the political forces confronting each other during the course of history of this region for well over a thousand years For centuries the drifting desert sand of Central Asia enveloped this civilization and the religion connected with it The late nineteenth and early twentieth century explorers and archaeologists successfully uncovered it at different centres along the old Silk Route This has been helpful for a comprehensive study of Buddhism with its literature and art The finds of hundreds of inscriptions have added to the cultural dimensions of the study Buddhism in Central Asia III ,2024-04-08 The BuddhistRoad project has been creating a new framework to understand the dynamics of cultural encounter and religious transfer across premodern Eastern Central Asia This framework includes a new focus on the complex interactions between Buddhism and non Buddhist traditions and a deepening of the traditional focus on Buddhist doctrines between the 6th and 14th centuries as Buddhism continued to spread along an ancient local political economic cultural system of exchange often referred to as the Silk Roads This volume brings together world renowned experts to discuss these issues including Buddhism and Christianity Islam Daoism Manichaeism local indigenous traditions Tantra etc Contributors include Daniel Berounsk Michal Biran Max Deeg Lewis Doney M lodie Doumy Meghan Howard Masang Yukiyo Kasai Diego Loukota Carmen Meinert Sam van Schaik Henrik H S rensen and Jens Wilkens Buddhism in Central Asia II ,2022-07-11 The ERC funded research project BuddhistRoad aims to create a new framework to enable understanding of the complexities in the dynamics of cultural encounter and religious transfer in pre modern Eastern Central Asia Buddhism was one major factor in this exchange for the first time the multi layered relationships between the trans regional Buddhist traditions Chinese Indian Tibetan and those based on local Buddhist cultures Khotanese Uyghur Tangut will be explored in a systematic way The second volume Buddhism in Central Asia II Practice and Rituals Visual and Materials Transfer based on the mid project conference held on September 16th 18th 2019 at CERES Ruhr Universit t Bochum Germany focuses on two of the six thematic topics addressed by the project namely on practices and rituals exploring material culture in religious context such as mandalas and talismans as well as visual and material transfer including shared iconographies and the spread of Khotanese themes Buddhism in Afghanistan and Central Asia.
