Building Customs In Viking Age Denmark:

Building Customs in Viking Age Denmark Holger Schmidt, 1994 This book is a discursive attempt to reconstruct the appearance of Viking buildings in Denmark This is difficult as the author makes clear firstly because there is little archaeological evidence for the form of the superstructure and secondly because of the wide chronological and geographical variation in type Still the presentation in English of comparative material from selected settlements and house sites both drawings and descriptions and the vision presented will form useful resources for anybody interested in the architectural forms of this formative period Routledge Revivals: Medieval Archaeology (2001) Pam J. Crabtree, 2017-07-05 Cover Title Copyright Original Title Original Copyright Dedication Contents Preface Acknowledgments Contributors Site Entries by Country Subject Guide Entries A to Z A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W Index Norsemen in the Viking Age Eric Christiansen, 2008-04-15 This history of the Nordic peoples in the period 750 1050 focuses on their homelands and colonies demonstrating the fluidity and incoherence of the world in which they lived Considers the Nordic peoples in Viking times without undue recourse to developmental theories Guides readers through some of the scholarly controversies surrounding these peoples Illustrated by reference to runic poetic and archaeological evidence Ancient Scandinavia T. Douglas Price, 2015-06-12 Scandinavia a land mass comprising the modern countries of Denmark Sweden and Norway was the last part of Europe to be inhabited by humans Not until the end of the last Ice Age when the melting of huge ice sheets left behind a fresh barren land surface about 13 000 BC did the first humans arrive and settle in the region The archaeological record of these prehistoric cultures much of it remarkably preserved in Scandinavia s bogs lakes and fjords has given us a detailed portrait of the evolution of human society at the edge of the inhabitable world In this book distinguished archaeologist T Douglas Price provides a history of Scandinavia from the arrival of the first humans to the end of the Viking period ca AD 1050 The first book of its kind in English in many years Ancient Scandinavia features overviews of each prehistoric epoch followed by illustrative examples from the region s rich archaeology An engrossing and comprehensive picture of change across the millennia emerges showing how human society evolved from small bands of hunter gatherers to large farming communities to the complex warrior cultures of the Bronze and Iron Ages cultures which culminated in the spectacular rise of the Vikings at the end of the prehistoric period The material evidence of these past societies arrowheads from reindeer hunts megalithic tombs rock art beautifully wrought weaponry Viking warships give vivid testimony to the ancient peoples of Scandinavia and to their extensive contacts with the remote cultures of the Arctic Circle Western Europe and the Mediterranean Medieval Archaeology Pamela Crabtree, 2013-05-13 This is the first reference work to cover the archaeology of medieval Europe No other reference can claim such comprehensive coverage from Ireland to Russia and from Scandinavia to Italy the archaeology of the entirety of medieval Europe is discussed The Cambridge History of Scandinavia Knut Helle, 2003-09-04 This volume presents a comprehensive exposition of both the prehistory and medieval history of the whole of Scandinavia The first part of the volume surveys the prehistoric and historic Scandinavian landscape and its natural resources and tells how man took possession of this landscape adapting culturally to changing natural conditions and developing various types of community throughout the Stone Bronze and Iron Ages The rest and most substantial part of the volume deals with the history of Scandinavia from the Viking Age to the end of the Scandinavian Middle Ages c 1520 The external Viking expansion opened Scandinavia to European influence to a hitherto unknown degree A Christian church organisation was established the first towns came into being and the unification of the three medieval kingdoms of Scandinavia began coinciding with the formation of the unique Icelandic Free State

"The" Viking Age Paul B. Du Chaillu,1889 Gods and Worshippers Thor Ewing,2008 What was paganism really like Who were the gods and how were they worshipped These are the questions Thor Ewing addresses in this fresh perspective on the pagan beliefs and rituals of the Viking and the Germanic world a world which encompasses not only Scandanavia and Germany but also Anglo Saxon England Gods and Worshippers explores ancient cult sites and religious gatherings as well as burial customs and the rites of the dead and it reveals the intimate links between religious and secular power Using the surviving archaeological evidence as well as the recorded myths and poetry from the various regions Ewing explores the realities of day to day worship such as sacrifices and sacred space as well as arguing that traditional magical religious societies operated in parallel to mainstream society according to their own distinctive morality and laws The picture that emerges is that of a complex pattern of powers which are respected honoured propitiated or even cajoled It is in this relationship between powers and people that the religion exists and though it takes many forms it is fundamentally one of respect honour and worship a relationship between gods and worshippers Recent Studies in the Final Palaeolithic of the European Plain Bodil Bratlund, Berit Valentin Eriksen, 2002 Using the regional diversity of environmental cultural changes that were rapid would have major use among geographically geomorphologically different regions this text aims at inter as well as intra regional comparison contrast of approaches A History of the Vikings Thomas Downing Kendrick, 1930 A history of the vikings
