Building Bridges To The Third World:

Building Bridges to the Third World Toni Hagen, 1994 Author's memoirs of field work of geological survey and expeditions from 1950-1958 his experiences in the resettlement of Tibetan refugees in Nepal Building Bridges to the Third World Toni Hagen, 1994-01-01 Rich Country Interests and Third World Development Robert Cassen, Richard Jolly, John W. Sewell, Robert Wood, 2025-04-01 First published in 1982 Rich Country Interests and Third World Development adds breadth and specificity to the exploration of the interests in Third World development of eleven rich countries: the United States, Canada, Japan, Australia, the United Kingdom, the Federal Republic of Germany, The Netherlands, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, and France. The authors analyze a spectrum of Northern economic, political, and security interests in development in the South. They also examine how national experiences, political traditions, humanistic values, and changing attitudes have influenced perceptions of and relationships with Third World countries over three decades of dramatic change in the North-South environment. This book helps lay a foundation for negotiated solutions to North-South issues by offering a greater appreciation of differences as well as commonalities in interests both among and within industrial and developing countries. An overview chapter points to issues broader than those raised in the country studies and addresses a critical question: On what terms is it in the interests of the North and South to pursue and fashion interdependence between them in the 1980s.

Thirdworld, 1995 State Of The Union 1994 Richard Caplan, John Feffer, Gerald Horne, John Cavanagh, 2019-06-04 Clinton rode into office on the promise of change. It was a safe content-free slogan. After all, in recent years the most radical proposals for change have come not from the Democrats but from the Republican right. Change could mean the further downsizing of government and neglect of social problems or, of course, the reversal of these trends. When they went to the polls in 1992, however, most Americans had a good idea of what kind of change they wanted.

Proceedings of the International Development Conference, Held March 20th, 1985, in Washington, D.C., 1985 Global Histories of the Portuguese Revolution Luís Trindade, Rita Lucas Narra, Ricardo Noronha, Pedro Ramos Pinto, 2025-05-29 This book takes a global approach to the Portuguese Revolution to locate it at the intersection of transnational historical phenomena such as the long 1960s, the Cold War, the emergence of the Third World, and post-war modernization.

The EEC and the Third World K. B. Lal, Hardev Singh Chopra, 1981 Writing from the Hearth Mildred Mortimer, 2007-11-01 If space is important in the realm of imagination and a key theme in feminist theory, cross-cultural studies of social maps reveal that men and women's spatial experiences differ: women rarely control physical or social space directly. Positing the thesis that women's writing of Francophone Africa and the Caribbean offers important perspectives on the relationship of gender to space, Writing from the Hearth proposes close readings of Francophone women writers of Africa: Aoua KZita Mariama B%, Ken Bugul, Calixthe Beyala, and Aminata Sow Fall, and the Caribbean: Marie Chauvet, Simon Schwarz, Bart Maryse, CondZ, and Edwidge Danticat. As critical readings of postcolonial African and Caribbean literature show, tropes of confinement appear frequently in female authored texts_ where home is often depicted as a place of alienation_ this critical study examines ambiguities associated with domestic space as enclosure as it explores the relationship between the female protagonist and the inner and outer spaces of her world domestic imaginative and public space Writing from the Hearth probes the hypothesis that the female protagonist can move toward empowerment by entering public space from which she has been excluded by indigenous patriarchs and European colonizers and by establishing a new relationship to domestic space or securing a liberating alternative space within it Flexible and multipurpose alternative space is a place of possibilities that can function as a refuge for meditation recollection or fantasy an antechamber for action and a site of resistance and performance Here by telling the tale writing the creative work a woman can affirm her sense of self
